The application is only for International Graduate students applying to UNT. Students should list all the schools attended for any undergraduate or graduate work and submit all transcripts pertaining to those schools, at least two months prior to the semester of enrollment. All students are encouraged to apply as early as possible. If application materials are received after the deadline, applications may experience delays in processing and may be subject to late registration and a late registration fee. Only written notice from the dean of the UNT Graduate School constitutes approval of admission, not correspondence with department chairs or with individual faculty members.

Immunization is an integral part of your health care. You should make sure that your immunizations for measles, tetanus and poliomyelitis are current. Please contact your physician for more information.

It is the policy of the University of North Texas not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, disability (where reasonable accommodations can be made), disabled veteran status or veteran of Vietnam era status in its educational programs, activities, admissions or employment policies. In addition to complying with federal and state equal opportunity laws and regulations, the university through its diversity policy declares harassment based on individual differences (including sexual orientation) inconsistent with its mission and educational goals. Direct questions or concerns to the equal opportunity office, (940) 565-2456, or the dean of students, (940) 565-2648. TDD access is available through Relay Texas: (800) 735-2989.
