

Vocal Health Lecture

Tuesday,
Sept. 26th,
2017

8:00AM—Intersection of Medicine and the Performing Arts;

A discussion of the history, unique medical conditions encountered by musicians, and possible roles for musical artists can play in the field. Room 287

9:30 AM—Laryngeal Form and Function: Vocalist to ENT

A discussion of journey from Vocal Performance to Medicine; an ENT perspective in the approach of care and treatment of the voice; and insights of laryngeal anatomy in vocal technique.

Room 289

David Bracken, MD

Senior Resident: University of California:
San Diego, Dept. of Otolaryngology/Head and Neck Surge