

UNT College of Business

MBA Logistics and Supply Chain Management

The Department of Marketing and Logistics continue a long-term commitment to excellence in graduate education. The departmental faculty recruited from nationally and internationally recognized universities, represents a wide range of teaching and research expertise. Graduates of the program pursue careers in a broad spectrum of industries.

Career opportunities after you complete the MBA program through the Department of Marketing and Logistics are very good. An MBA with a concentration in Logistics and Supply Chain Management supports growth and development from two perspectives. One, if you have an established career path, the program provides you the opportunity to gain the broader, more general perspective necessary for promotion to leading managerial positions. Or, if you are preparing for the business world, the combination of an undergraduate degree with an MBA concentration in Logistics and Supply Chain Management provides an excellent foundation for additional career opportunities.
