Brendon Bray

Head Coach

Second Year ▶ Washington '05

In his first season at North Texas, Brendon Bray led the Mean Green to a fifth-place finish in their inaugural year of participation in the Conference USA swimming and diving championships.

Throughout the season his swimmers had excellent performances in the pool with North Texas swimmers setting four school records and achieving three NCAA "B" cut time standards during the season.

During the fall semester Junior Krista Rossum set the school record in the 400 IM at the Houston Invite and then re-broke that record again at the Conference USA Championships in Atlanta in February with a time of 4:16.95. Junior Mona Groteguth also had excellent performances at the Houston Invitational, setting school records in both the 100 (54.02) and 200 backstroke (1:56.62).

In the classroom, the Mean Green swimmers and divers received many awards, including the No. 2 ranked team GPA of all swimming and diving programs in the country as announced by the College Swimming Coaches Association of America. In addition, the team had the highest GPA among C-USA swimming and diving programs and the North Texas athletic department for the 2013-14 season. The Mean Green received the C-USA Academic Award for 2013-14, while Krista Rossum was awarded with the C-USA Scholar-Athlete Award, an honor given to only one swimmer or diver from the conference based on academic achievement, athletic achievement and service. In addition, both Rossum and Groteguth were two of six total swimmers named to the C-USA All-Academic team for swimming and diving.

Bray came to North Texas from San Diego State, where he served as the associate head coach for the Aztecs while they achieved a peak dual meet ranking of No. 23 in the country by the CSCAA. Since his promotion to associate head coach, SDSU compiled a 26-1 dual meet record and became an annual participant at the NCAA Championships. Bray helped coach all 13 individual NCAA championship participants including five honorable All-American performances, which represented both the first individual and relay points scored by SDSU at the national championships.

In 2007, Bray came to SDSU after the program had finished last in the conference meet five straight years, and in four seasons he helped the team to their first Mountain West Conference championship in 2011, and then repeated the title in 2013. During Bray's tenure, SDSU accounted for the MWC swimmer of the year in three of the last four seasons he coached at SDSU. In total, Bray helped SDSU to school records in every single swimming and diving event in his six seasons.

Before SDSU, Bray worked in the Pac-12 conference as men's and women's assistant coach at Washington for 2005-07 after serving as an undergraduate assistant in 2004-05. During his time at Washington, Bray coached several NCAA championship participants and helped recruit the collegeswimming.com's number-one ranked recruit in the country.

Bray also swam three years for Washington and one year at the University of Utah. Bray was a senior national qualifier and Pac-12 championship participant during his time at UW. Bray graduated with a bachelor's degree in economics from Washington in 2005, and earned his master's degree in intercollegiate athletic leadership through the department of education at Washington in 2007. Bray is a native of Reno, Nevada. His wife, Beth, is a practicing dentist.

Brittany Saylor

Assistant Coach

Second Year ▶ Ball State '08

Brittany Saylor begins her second year as the assistant coach for North Texas swimming & diving in 2014.

As an assistant for three years at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Saylor helped rewrite the record books, including several school, league and freshman records. She coached Emily McClellan, Milwaukee's lone NCAA Championships qualifier, who registered Milwaukee's first 'A' cut time in 2012 and finished 18th in the 200 breaststroke. In 2013, Saylor oversaw her continued growth in the championship event as she came in 12th and received her second All-American honor.

Before her time with the Panthers, Saylor started a satellite program over her final two seasons with the USA Swimming club. As the head coach, she worked with athletes ranging in age from six-to-21, from beginning swimmers to national-qualifying athletes.

In 2007, Saylor served as assistant coach for both the boys and girls swimming and diving programs at Frankfort High School in Frankfort, Ind. She helped the boys to a first-place showing in conference that initial season and was hired on as the head coach following her graduation from Ball State University. During her time, multiple records were broken and, in February of 2010, she was named Coach of the Year for the West Lafayette Boys Sectional.

Saylor was a four-year swimmer at Ball State, where she qualified for the 2006 U.S. Open in the 100 and 200 backstroke. As team co-captain her senior year, she twice earned Mid-American Conference Academic All-Team honors and was nominated MAC Senior of the Year. In addition to claiming all-league second-team honors on two occasions, she broke school records in both backstroke events and was named the team's Most Outstanding Freshman her first season. Once her four years of eligibility had passed, she worked a season as the student assistant at Ball State.

Jim Pynch

Assistant Coach

Seventh Year ▶ Southern Connecticut State '76

Jim Pynch begins his seventh year as the Mean Green's diving coach. In the past six years at North Texas, Pynch has established a reputable diving program in Denton.

North Texas has received 15 diver of the week awards under Pynch, and of the top-10 one- and three-meter scores in school history, all of them have come with Pynch at the helm of the diving program.

During the 2013-14 season, Pynch had multiple Mean Green divers qualify for the NCAA Zone Meet for the fourth year in a row.

In the last six years under Pynch, three different Mean Green divers have stood on the podium in the combined one- and three-meter dives at the conference championships. Catherine Johnson left the program in 2014 as the most decorated diver in North Texas history, winning four silver medals and two bronze medals in four years at the conference championships.

In 2012-13, Rebecca Taylor became the first North Texas diver to advance to the finals of the NCAA Zone, placing 15th in the 3-meter dive. Taylor also competed in the platform dive at Zones, becoming only the second North Texas diver to do so.

Johnson joined Taylor at the NCAA Zone meet after placing third in both the one- and three-meter dives at the Sun Belt Conference Championships.

Johnson and Taylor combined to earn conference Diver of the Week honors three times under Pynch's watch in 2012-2013.

In 2011-12, Pynch coached the Mean Green to new records on the one and three-meter dives and prepared North Texas to compete on the platform dive for the first time in program history. In the combined three events, his North Texas divers broke the school record eight times.

Pynch led the Mean Green to its most successful diving year in 2010-11, with three of his divers qualifying for the NCAA Zone Meet, marking the first time since 2003 that any Mean Green diver had qualified and the first time multiple divers had qualified in the same year.

In 2009-10, Pynch guided Mary Beth Geeze to a second-place finish on the one-meter board at the Sun Belt Championships, while having both Geeze and Delia Covo record points on both stages. As a squad, the North Texas divers brought home four different Sun Belt Conference Diver of the Week honors throughout the season.

A two-time National Diving Coach of the Year (1987, 1993), Pynch has extensive international coaching experience with the US National Diving team, and spent nearly a quarter of a century as the diving coach at Yale.

Pynch has produced NCAA All-Americans at the Division I, II and III level, and had the honor of coaching with the US National Diving team in competitions in East Germany, the Soviet Union and China in the summer of 1990. In 1991, he coached for the United States at the World Age Group Championships in Sweden.

Boasting an extensive list of school and conference record holders, as well as conference and national champions, Pynch has become a nationally-respected coach at the collegiate and international stages. He coached at Fairfield College and the University of Northern Iowa prior to serving at Yale from 1982-2005. Pynch spent three seasons at Macalester College in St. Paul, Minn.

Pynch earned All-American honors while diving at Southern Connecticut State from 1972-76. He and his wife, Krissa, have two children.
