

Where are they now?

'76, Dr. Jerry Bawcom, Belton, TX is chancellor at the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor, advising the president in fundraising and public relations and teaching in the educational leadership doctoral program. He was president at Texas Wesleyan University for seven years and UMHB for 18 years.

'92, Jayne Flores, Keller, TX is the principal of W.S. Ryan Elementary in Denton, TX. She has been an administrator for 12 years and her campuses have received top ratings of Recognized and Exemplary from the Texas Education Agency. Her school has been named a Top 10 School in Texas.

'03, '05, Dr. Julie Bore, Grand Prairie, TX is a clinical assistant professor at Southern Methodist University. She teaches math education, special education and general master's core requirement courses to undergraduate, graduate and certification-only students.

'99, '07, Dr. Sparkle Greenhaw, Fort Worth, TX is the director of the Alcohol and Drug Education Center at Texas Christian University. She is a licensed professional counselor supervisor and national certified counselor. She has more than 15 years' experience working with college students.

'94, Paul Cope, Irving, TX is a licensed professional counselor and clinical innovations manager for LifeSynch, a subsidiary of Humana Inc. Paul is the subject matter expert for clinical issues concerning autism and works on a task force with Humana regarding compliance with new state mandates for autism.

'91, Dr. L. Juane Heflin, Atlanta, GA is an associate professor of educational psychology and special education at Georgia State University. She has almost 30 years of experience learning about and advocating for individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorders.

'04, '07, Richard Edwards, Richardson, TX is a seventh grade English teacher at Leonard Evans Middle School in McKinney, TX. He is a 2010 - 2011 Teacher Voices columnist for the Dallas Morning News.

'02, Donalyn Miller, Bedford, TX was selected as a finalist for 2011 Texas Elementary Teacher of the Year. She is the author of The Book Whisperer: Awakening the Inner Reader in Every Child and teaches sixth grade language arts at Trinity Meadows Intermediate School in Keller.

'95, Brenda Elledge, Dallas, TX is the owner and director of Elledge Counseling Associates, with four locations in Ellis and south Dallas counties. Her staff includes five LPC interns and two practicum students. She is also an adjunct professor of psychology at Dallas Baptist University.

'05, Brad Ray, Dallas, TX teaches art and sculpture at Skyline High School in the Dallas Independent School District. For the past three years, Brad has served the Skyline class of 2012 as a sponsor. He currently serves on the Teacher Advisory Board for the Nasher Sculpture Center.

'04, Tiffany Farha, Dallas, TX spent 10 years as the player relations manager for the National Basketball Association's Dallas Mavericks. Tiffany now represents and manages NBA players across the U.S. via Farha Sports Management, a publicity and marketing firm.

'67, '69, Dr. G. Pritch Smith, Jacksonville, FL is a professor of education, University of North Florida. He was instrumental in the multicultural teacher education movement and was one of the founders of the National Association for Multicultural Education (NAME).

UNT