

Where are they now?

'70, Dr. Lorene Barnes Holmes, Hawkins, TX, retired from Jarvis Christian College in 2009 after a rewarding career of 49 years. The Dr. Lorene Barnes Holmes Endowed Scholarship was named in her honor. She was named Professor Emerita in 2010.

'96, '02, Bernadette Vargas Rodriguez, Carrollton, TX is a professor of Child Development/Teacher Preparation at Brookhaven College. She combines practical and theoretical knowledge to prepare students for a career in her chosen field, for which she holds great passion.

'91, '92, Sheri Campbell-Husband, Burleson, TX has served in municipal government since 1996. She is currently city administrator for the city of Hudson Oaks, TX. She is an active member of the Texas and International City Management Associations and Rotary International.

'09, Dr. Gina D. Garcia-Rodriguez, Carrollton, TX is the Program Manager for a school reform initiative out of the George W. Bush Presidential Center called Middle School Matters. Previously she was a Behavioral Specialist, Autism Specialist and Special Education Teacher.

'96, Angie E. Gaylord, Plano, TX is the principal at Lady Bird Johnson MS in Irving, TX, the first net-zero middle school in the USA. As an advocate for visionary educational reform, she speaks nationally on strategies to empower student driven learning and innovative thinking in the classroom.

'10, Dr. Andi J. Thacker, Dallas, TX, is an adjunct professor of Biblical counseling at Dallas Theological Seminary. She has a private counseling practice in North Dallas where she specializes in play therapy working with children, adolescents and adults.

'08 Dr. Cheyenne Pease-Carter, Colleyville, TX, provides counseling services for teenagers, adults, couples, and families at her private practice. She serves as an adjunct professor for UNT and spends her free time promoting animal-assisted therapy and relationship centered dog training.

COLLEGE of
EDUCATION