GAME NOTES

|| No Trailing the Blazers...

This is the fourth all-time meeting between North Texas and UAB. The Mean Green is an undefeated 3-0 in the series, with one win (67-54) at Air Force Tournament on December 1, 2000, one win (76-63) at Thanksgiving Classic in Birmingham on November 28, 2009, and one win (66-58) last year at the Super Pit on February 1, 2013. In that game, Briesha Wynn scored 19 points on an ultra-efficient 5-7 FG and 8-10 FT.

|| Arcing Hierarchy...

The team's highest-ranked statistic is three-point defense. North Texas holds its opponents to 27.4-percent from beyond the arc this season, which is 28th in the NCAA and second in Conference USA. Unfortunately, the Mean Green is actually worse, as the team shoots 24.1-percent from three point range, which is 333rd out of 343 teams in the NCAA and last in C-USA.

|| We're Going Streaking...

Through 21 games on the season, North Texas has three six-game losing streaks that have all been broken by wins (first at UMKC, second vs. Rice and third vs. Marshall). Against UAB, the Mean Green will be looking for its first win streak of the season and first since the team defeated Abilene Christian (64-50) and Bethune Cookman (82-79) in the Holiday Hill Challenge from November 23-24, 2013.

|| Free Throws Going Up...

Even though North Texas is still dead last in the NCAA in foul shooting, the Mean Green has been much better of late from the stripe. Through ten games in Conference USA play, the team is shooting 63.9-percent (92-144) after shooting 51.2-percent (88-172) in 11 non-conference games.

|| Defense Buckle Down...

In order for North Texas to be successful, its defense needs to lead the way. When the Mean Green allows fewer than 50 points to opponents, they are 3-2 on the season. The only two losses were a 46-42 contest vs. Houston and a 46-38 game vs. UT Arlington. If North Texas allows 50 or more points, the team is winless, at 0-16. In addition, the Mean Green is when they win the turnover battle and 0-11 when they do not, even further proof that performance on the defensive end is key.

LAST GAME RECAP

DENTON — "modus operandi" is a latin phrase that translates to "method of operation," or M.O., as it is more commonly known in everyday lingo. For this season's edition of the North Texas women's basketball team, its M.O. has not been a secret: try to control tempo, keep the scoring low and play harder than the opponent.

The Mean Green followed that exact formula Saturday afternoon against visiting Marshall, winning by a score of 45-42 at the Super Pit to improve to 3-18 on the season and 2-8 in Conference USA play. Junior guard Kasiney Williams, making her second career start at North Texas, scored a career-high 12 points on 5-13 shooting and added two assists to lead the team.

"It feels great to get this kind of win," senior guard BreAnna Dawkins said after the game. "We haven't been winning, but we work hard every day in practice and we continue to listen to our coaches and keep grinding."

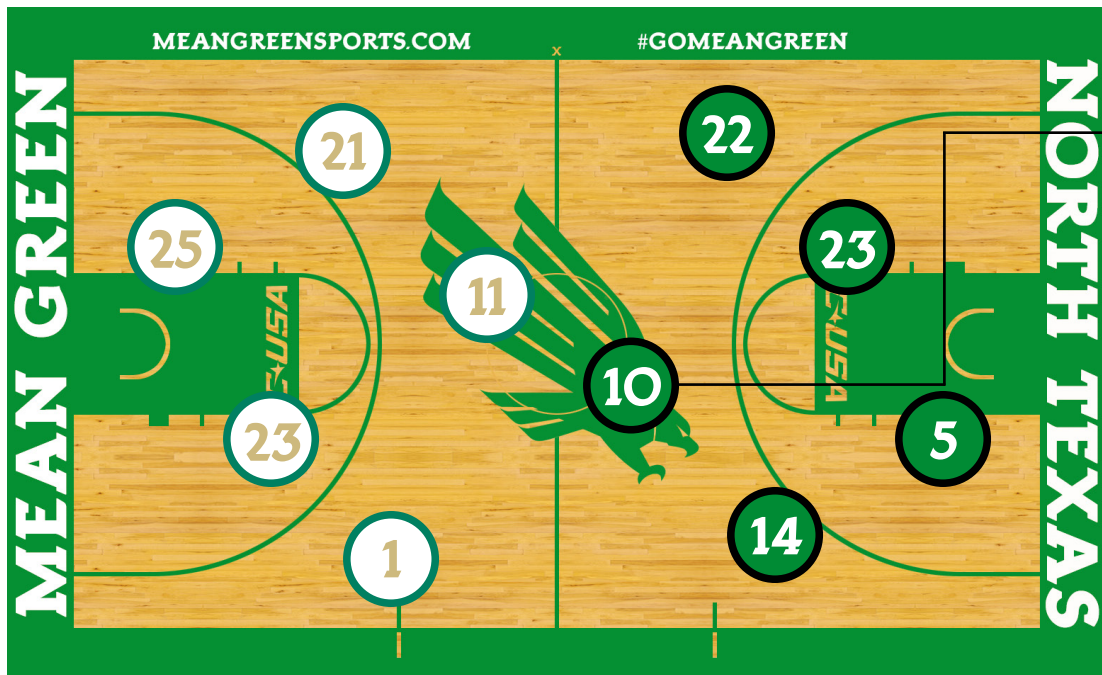

The 5-foot 1-inch Williams embodies head coach Mike Petersen's hard-nosed style of play just as much as anybody on the team. Today, she put in a 40-minute, iron-woman performance to lead the team and instilled calmness and direction to the North Texas offense, which had only 14 turnovers in the game.

With senior forward Briesha Wynn ruled out due to an ankle injury she suffered during the Mean Green's loss to Western Kentucky on Thursday night, the team knew it needed to put a concerted effort towards competing on the glass. And that they did, as North Texas had six players grab four or more rebounds and equaled the Thundering Herd's team total of 36. Junior Acheil Tac and freshman Bria Frierson each had six boards to lead the team; for Frierson, the six rebounds were a career-high mark.

"Credit to Briesha, she's over there on the sideline coaching her brains out," head coach Mike Petersen commented on Wynn's support from the bench. "She stayed positive and she didn't go into full-on pout mode. She was encouraging, and as a teammate that sends a pretty strong message that I have your back and you have my back."

PROBABLE STARTERS

Junior guard Kasiney Williams made her second career start at North Texas vs. Marshall on Saturday. She scored a career-high 12 points and led the Mean Green with two assists.

Mike Petersen enters his third season as head coach, in command of the Mean Green women's basketball program.

Since being introduced as the seventh coach in North Texas women's basketball history on April 16, 2012, Petersen has changed the perception of North Texas women's basketball into that of a contender.

Prior to arriving at North Texas, Petersen was the head coach at Wake Forest from 2004-12 and is the school's all-time winningest coach. He is a coaching veteran with over 30 years of experience, including three seasons as the head coach at TCU.

Petersen guided Wake Forest to unprecedented heights in leading the Demon Deacons to the postseason in three of the past four seasons and winning 72 games, which is the best stretch in Wake Forest women's basketball history.

He has also been a head coach at Gonzaga (1985-89), New Mexico State (1992-96), and TCU (1996-99). Petersen also spent five seasons with the Minnesota men's basketball team (1999-2004), serving as associate head coach for four seasons.

Prior to taking over at TCU, Petersen was the women's head coach at New Mexico State University from 1992-96. In his four seasons with the Aggies, Petersen recorded three consecutive 20-win seasons and compiled an 81-38 (.681) overall record and a 53-19 (.736) record in Big West Conference games.

Petersen began his head coaching career in 1985 when he accepted the head women's coaching position at Gonzaga University. During his first season, Petersen led the Zags to a 21-10 record and missed the NAIA National Tournament by a game.

After an 11-16 record in their transition year into NCAA Division I, Gonzaga captured the West Coast Conference title in its inaugural season and only their second year at the Division I level. He won 65 games in four seasons at Gonzaga.
