Rank/Title:	Lecturer (multiple-year)
Job Summary/Basic Function:	The Department of Art Education and Art History in the College of Visual Arts and Design at The University of North Texas (UNT) seeks a scholar to teach introductory and advanced undergraduate art history courses in areas that complement existing programs and faculty areas. Courses include Art History Survey, History of Photography, Modernism, Postmodernism, and Theories of Contemporary Art. Course load is 4/4. Teaching at the Denton and downtown Dallas campuses is required. The art history program consists of seven tenured/tenure-track faculty members and two lecturers who work with approximately 70 undergraduate art history majors and 10 Master's degree students. Art history faculty also teach roughly 1,500 students from across the university each semester. In addition to its undergraduate and graduate degrees, the program also offers post-baccalaureate certification in art museum education. Additional information about the program and faculty areas can be found at http://art.unt.edu/art-history.html. The University of North Texas System is firmly committed to equal opportunity and does not permit - and takes actions to prevent - discrimination, harassment (including sexual violence), and retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, disability, family status, genetic information, citizenship or veteran status in its application and admission processes, educational programs and activities, facilities, and employment practices. The University of North Texas System immediately investigates and takes remedial action when appropriate. The University of North Texas System also takes actions to prevent retaliation against individuals who oppose a discriminatory practice, file a charge, or testify, assist or participate in an investigative proceeding or hearing.
