Sujay Lama

Head Coach

12th Season
(Luther College '92)

Sujay Lama has established a winning tradition at North Texas as he has led the Mean Green to three conference championships including back-to-back crowns in 2012 and 2013.

During the 2016 season, Lama led the Mean Green to a No. 68 ranking and tallied wins over No. 36 Oklahoma and No. 59 UT Arlington. Senior Anastasiya Shestakova earned her third all-conference selection, and freshman Tamuna Kutubidze was named first team All-Conference USA after recording 13 dual wins.

Lama is the program's winningest coach with a 139-113 record at North Texas, and his career record stands at 247-197.

He has also mentored 19 all-conference athletes in the combined Sun Belt Conference and Conference USA leagues.

The Mean Green have reached the semifinals or finals of the Sun Belt Conference and the Conference USA Championships the last eight years.

Lama also became the first coach in program history to receive coach of the year honors multiple times. He was named Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year in 2010, 2012 and 2013. Lama was named the USPTA Collegiate Coach of the Year for the state of Texas in 2009.

In 2014, the Mean Green advanced to the semifinal round in their first-ever C-USA Tournament, where they assembled an 11-11 record for the season. Lama coached Bardabush, Shestakova and Sprinkmeyer to all-conference honors.

The Mean Green capped off one of the best seasons in school history in 2013 with a second straight Sun Belt Conference Championship and a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

For his efforts, Lama was named the 2013 Jim Verdieck College Coach of the Year by the Professional Tennis Registry (PTR). This award is given by the leading tennis-teaching professional organization in the world.

In 2012, the Mean Green won their second conference championship, defeating Florida International, 4-2. The Mean Green went on to play Nebraska in the NCAA tournament, losing 4-0.

The 2012 squad also produced the program's highest ranking of No. 40, finishing the season at No. 55. This comes just two seasons after the Mean Green received their first national ranking of No. 66.

It didn't take long for Lama to leave his mark on the program. In just four seasons, Lama took the Mean Green from last in the Sun Belt to first.

Working with mainly a group of walk-ons during the 2006-07 school year, Lama went 2-19 in his first season with the Mean Green. The team improved to double-digit wins the next season and then advanced to the conference semifinals in 2008-09.

The 2010 season was a breakout year for Lama and the Mean Green. The team captured the program's first Sun Belt Conference championship with a win over No. 49 FIU. The conference championship earned the team an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament appearance, the first in school history. After a loss to No. 32 Tulsa, North Texas finished its historic season with a 17-7 record.

Lama was also named a finalist for the prestigious Giant Steps Award during 2009. In the fall of 2008, the Mean Green tallied individual wins over national contenders such as LSU, Ohio State, Texas, Texas A&M, Texas Tech, Baylor, SMU, Rice, and Houston.

North Texas success has not been limited to the court, as the Mean Green has picked up ITA All-Academic team honors the last 10 years.

Prior to becoming North Texas' 10th coach in program history, Lama spent eight years as the women's tennis head coach at the University of Illinois.

The Fighting Illini saw significant improvement with Lama at the helm. In his first year, Lama transformed the Illini from 8-13, 4-7 in Big Ten play, and ninth in the conference the previous season to a squad that was ranked No. 10 in the region and No. 75 in that nation.

The Illini continued to see significant improvement during Lama's eight years. In 2003-04 the Illini went 17-6, posting their best winning percentage since Illinois's first team went 6-0 in 1975. Lama's 2003-04 squad also earned the highest national ranking in program history, No. 16. In 2003, the Orange and Blue knocked off top-ranked Duke, 4-3, at the UI Atkins Tennis Center.

Lama's teams reached a number of milestones during his eight years in Champaign-Urbana. The Illini won their first NCAA Tournament match in May 2001. The program also had their first Big Ten Freshman of the Year, the Rookie of the Year in the Midwest Region, ten All-Big Ten players, four Big Ten Medal of Honor players, 13 ITA Scholar-Athletes and two Academic All-Americans. UI's women's tennis players earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition 39 times under Lama.

During Lama's eight years at Illinois, the Illini went 108-84 with a Big Ten record of 60-34. He produced squads that made five NCAA team tournament appearances as well as five NCAA individual tournament appearances.

Before his stint at Illinois, Lama served as the top assistant under then-Florida coach Andy Brandi from 1995-98, helping the Gators win two NCAA titles, three SEC crowns and post three undefeated dual match seasons, including the 1998 campaign. Lama was honored for his contributions as the 1997 ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year in the South Region.

Prior to Florida, Lama was the Senior Staff Professional at the Van Der Meer Tennis Center in Hilton Head, S.C., where he worked with the elite player development program (for touring pros and top junior players) from 1992-95. A noted teacher and clinician, Lama has worked at tennis camps across the United States, Europe and Asia. He has earned the highest certification level with the USPTR and the USPTA, and is a USTA Certified High Performance Coach.

He was a traveling coach on the WTA tour for several players including two top twenty ranked Amanda Coetzer (South Africa) and Naoko Sawamatsu (Japan). Lama has coached at 12 grand slam events including Wimbledon, U.S Open, Australian Open and French Open.

In his playing career, Lama was the top-ranked player in Nepal from 1989-91 and reached No. 50 in the International Tennis Federation (ITF) junior world singles rankings. He represented his country in several international tournaments, including the Asian Games in Beijing, China in 1990.

What They're Saying About Coach Sujay Lama

"Sujay Lama is one of the up-and-coming women's coaches in the country. With his knowledge, work ethic, enthusiasm and passion for coaching, it will bring the North Texas women's tennis to new heights."

-- Andy Brandi, Director of the Harold Solomon Tennis Institute former head coach at University of Florida, won three team and individual titles

"Sujay is one of the finest coaches in the world. He has helped me become a better person and coach. His passion for life is infectious, and it has brought him and those fortunate enough to be in his presence much success. He is the coach I would gladly send my daughter to play for. North Texas is going to become a contender with his leadership."

-- Bryan Shelton, Head Coach, Georgia Tech, 2007 National Champions

"I have never worked with a finer coach than Sujay Lama. He deals with all aspects of the player from athletics to academics to their physical and mental well being. He believes all of these attributes need to be addressed in order to have a successful student-athlete."

-- JoAnne Russell, former Wimbledon and NCAA Champion

The Nepal native attended Luther College in Decorah, Iowa, from 1988-92 and was a two-time Volvo Collegiate All-American in singles (1991-92). He also earned Senior Player of the Year honors in the Midwest Region in 1992 and was ranked No. 5 in NCAA Division III singles. Lama dominated the Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic Conference the four years he competed at Luther.

He won the league's singles and doubles titles and took conference MVP honors all four years of his collegiate career, leading his team to four IIAC titles. Lama put together a career singles record of 104-18 and captured two Rolex Midwest Regionals (1989 and 1991), while advancing to the semifinals of the Rolex National Intercollegiate Indoor Championship in 1991. Lama also made three NCAA Tournament appearances. He was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in the fall of 2002.

He earned his bachelor's degree in Public Communications/Political Science from Luther College in 1992, earning GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America honors during his time there.

Lama has traveled in more than 50 countries and is fluent in English, German, Hindi and Nepalese. He has lived five or more years on three continents (Asia, Europe and North America).

Recently, Lama has lent his time and expertise to a unique venture he calls "Project Nepal". He has helped raise over $12,000 each year to fund the education of 67 orphanage children in his hometown of Nepal (www.supportprojectnepal.com).

Lama and his wife, Lynne, reside in Denton with their 14-year-old daughter, Priya, and nine-year-old son, Siddhartha.

Jeff Hammond

Assoc. Head Coach

5th Year
(Vermont '93)

Jeff Hammond enters his fourth season with the North Texas tennis team as an associate head coach.

In his three years with the Mean Green, Hammond has helped guide the team to two Conference USA semifinal tournament appearances and mentored eight all-conference athletes.

Prior to North Texas, Hammond was the assistant women's tennis coach at SMU in June of 2012. Previously he spent six years at TCU, serving as the head coach from 2007-10, after two seasons as an assistant.

As head coach, Hammond led the Horned Frogs to four consecutive Mountain West titles, four straight NCAA appearances and achieved top-25 team rankings each year. He was named the Mountain West Coach of the Year in 2008 and 2009. Hammond coached three players to All-America honors and saw several players reach the finals and semifinals in the doubles and singles NCAA indoor and outdoor championships.

As an assistant at TCU, he was tabbed the ITA Southwest Region Assistant Coach of the Year as he helped the Horned Frogs advance to the NCAA Round of 16 as a team in 2006. He coached three players to All-America honors including the 2006 ITA All-American Tournament Singles Champion.

During the 2003 and 2004 seasons, Hammond served as the volunteer assistant coach for the nationally-ranked Southern California men's team. He helped guide the 2004 USC squad to a co-Pac-10 team championship and to the NCAA semifinals. The Trojans finished No. 4 in the rankings.

Hammond started his coaching career at University High in Irvine, Calif., in 2000 after serving as an assistant tennis pro at The Pointe Hilton on South Mountain in Phoenix. During his two-year stint with the boys' varsity tennis squad at University High, Hammond led his team to two California Interscholastic Federation team championships. Following the 2000 title, he was named the Orange County Register Coach of the Year.

Hammond earned his bachelor's degree in history from the University of Vermont in 1993, where he was a four-year starter on the tennis team with a .694 winning percentage in singles. As a senior, he was co-captain, and in 1992 he helped lead the Catamounts to the North Atlantic Conference championship. Following graduation, he spent time playing on the United States Tennis Association Pro Circuit. In 2001, he finished ranked No. 1 in Men's 30s Singles in Southern California and #10 in the United States.

Hammond and his wife, Amy, former Arizona State Pac-10 platform diving champion in 1994, have two sons, Eric and Kevin.

What They're Saying About Coach Hammond

"Jeff is a great hire for North Texas and will bring so much to their tennis program. He has been affiliated with many successful programs during his coaching career and will bring so much of that success to the program down there. I know both Jeff and Sujay will bring the team at North Texas to even greater heights [by] partnering together on and off the court."

—Ronni Bernstein, Head Women's Coach
University of Michigan

"Jefferson is a great hire for North Texas. He has a vast array of experience in the tennis world, and to have someone who was very successful as a head coach join the staff is quite a coup. First and foremost, Jeff is an outstanding individual who commands the confidence and trust of student-athletes. He knows his tennis and will be an invaluable recruiter for the program. North Texas is very fortunate to have a person of his stature join their staff."

—Sheila McInerney, Head Women's Coach
Arizona State University

"Jefferson will be a strong addition to the Mean Green tennis program. He has a wealth of experience and will assuredly make a positive impact at North Texas."

—Jenny Mainz, Head Women's Coach
University of Alabama

"Jeff brings passion and energy, along with great knowledge and love for women's collegiate tennis. He understands what it takes to bring out the best in a young lady as a person and a tennis player."

—Claire Pollard, Head Women's Coach
Northwestern University

"Jefferson will bring experience and a high tennis IQ to the Mean Green program. He's as good as it gets when it comes to teaching and coaching doubles."

—Jay Louderback, Head Women's Coach
University of Notre Dame
