NORTH TEXAS' TOP STORYLINES, STREAKS & TRENDS

Racking Up Weekly Awards

Conference USA announced Monday that two North Texas volleyball players earned Player of the Week honors. Junior setter Karley York was named the league's Setter of the Week, and outside hitter Barbara Teakell was tabbed Freshman of the Week.

York combined for 111 assists over the weekend, recording back-to-back 50-assist matches to extend her streak to five matches. She recorded her second- and third-straight double-doubles with 12 digs against Rice and 14 digs against Southern Miss.

Teakell set a single-match career high with 21 kills against the Owls, her second 20-kill performance in three matches. She led the team in kills in both matches, totaling 38 for the weekend at a .366 clip.

Rewriting the Record Book

Seniors Amanda Chamberlain and Holly Milam and junior Karley York continue to cement their legacies by working their way up the program's career records lists.

With 111 assists last weekend, York became the sixth North Texas setter to reach 2,000 career assists (2,074) and the 11th to compile 1,000 assists (1,032) in a single season. York needs 77 assists to pass Heidi Johnson for the 10th-most assists in a single season (1,108).

Chamberlain is on pace to shatter the school's career attack percentage record (.330) with a career mark of .366 through Sunday.

Chamberlain passed Catherine Coffey for the second-most block assists in school history (279) and lies 39 short of the program record. Chamberlain also moved into a three-way tie for ninth in career block solos (68).

Milam passed Jessica Brown for the seventh-most career attacks in school history (2,768). With five more total blocks, Milam would join Chamberlain in the program's top-10, and with three block assists, she would pass Kim Martin for eighth-most in program history.

Home Sweet Home

The North Texas Volleyball Center has been a tough place for opponents to come into. Nearly every home match is a sell out and the low roof provides an advantage to the Mean Green. In the Palileo era, North Texas owns a 52-17 record when playing at home.

Since falling to Texas Tech in the second match of the season, the Mean Green have won 11 straight at home, which is one shy of the longest home win streak in school history.

North Texas Tabbed Sixth in C-USA Poll

For the second straight year, the North Texas volleyball team was picked to finish sixth in the Conference USA Preseason Poll.

The Mean Green placed two players on the C-USA Preseason Team in senior middle blockers Amanda Chamberlain and Holly Milam. The duo earned first team all-conference honors in 2016, and Milam was named to the all-conference second team in 2015.
