Michael Akers

Head Coach

► First Year

Michael Akers is in his first year in charge of the Mean Green women's golf program, and in just his second tournament at the helm, led North Texas to a single-round program record of five-under-par at the Johnie Imes Invitational.

Akers, the former head coach at Texas State, led the Bobcats to six NCAA Regional appearances.

Prior to joining North Texas, Akers coached 10 seasons at Texas State, and led the Bobcats to six NCAA Tournament appearances, including three-straight trips from 2012-14. He coached three conference championships (two Southland, one Sun Belt) and earned three at-large bids for the first time in Texas State history.

In 2015-16, Texas State took home its first Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship. Named the preseason favorites by Golfweek, the Bobcats overcame a one-stroke deficit after round one to pull away to a 19-stroke victory.

After joining the SBC in 2013, the Bobcats had back-to-back runner-up finishes at the SBC Tournament. Akers coached 10 All-Sun Belt selections and won 12 tournament titles in his 10-year head coaching career in San Marcos.

The 2012-13 season marked the fourth time that Akers led Texas State to the NCAA Tournament, previously accomplishing the feat in 2008, 2010 and 2012.

Off the course, Akers' squad earned a perfect APR score of 1000. Krista Puisite contributed to the high academic standards, becoming the first Bobcat to earn the CoSIDA Academic All-American award.

In regards to overall rankings, the 2012-13 Bobcats finished the season ranked No. 26 nationally, with a 297.94 scoring average in 33 rounds.

In 2009-10, Akers and the Bobcats captured their second Southland Conference Championship in three years in record-setting fashion. The team overcame a 15-stroke deficit in the final round to win the title. Texas State also earned an automatic bid to the NCAA West Regionals and Akers was named 2009-10 Southland Conference Coach of the Year.

Akers joined Texas State in September 2006, and his successful tenure began right away. In May 2007, Texas State's recruiting class was ranked among the nation's top five by The Golf Channel.

Texas State finished the 2007-08 season with six top-five finishes and the five freshmen were ranked as the nation's best class by Golfstat.com. Texas State capped off its successful season by winning the 2008 Southland Conference Championship and qualifying to play in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

In that season, the Bobcats jumped an astounding 100 spots in the national rankings in 12 months after climbing from 148th in Oct. 2006 to 48th in Oct. 2007. Those achievements earned Akers Southland Conference Coach of the Year honors in 2008.

Besides successfully coaching the Bobcats, Akers created one of the top intercollegiate tournaments in the nation, while in San Marcos. The first two tournaments were played at Wolfdancer Golf Club at the Hyatt Lost Pines resort before shifting to the Onion Creek Golf Club in 2009.

Akers arrived at Texas State after serving as an assistant coach for men's and women's golf at the University of Central Florida. Prior to his stint at UCF, Akers spent one season as a volunteer assistant for the women's program at Middle Tennessee.

Akers was also the associate head coach at his alma mater, Fort Hays State in Kansas, for eight seasons. There he helped elevate the program to the top of the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference.

Akers also served as head PGA professional at the Smoky Hill Country Club in Hays where he was responsible for the club's daily golf operations management. He is also the course-record holder at Smoky Hill, having fired a nine-under 62 on the par-71 course, and became a PGA Class A professional in 1996.

Additionally, Akers served as the assistant professional at Rio Pinar Country Club in Orlando, Florida, for two years, where he assisted with the day-to-day operations of the private club.

He is the founder and co-owner of Precision Valley Golf Center in Kansas, a full-service golf training site that includes indoor and outdoor hitting areas as well as a pro shop. In 2001, Akers produced and co-authored a golf instructional CD entitled "Build Your Dream Swing." The interactive CD covers the seven components of the full swing.

Akers earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from FHSU, where he was a member of the Tiger men's golf team. He recorded three tournament victories during his collegiate career in Hays. He and his wife, Tamara, have three sons, Drew, Eddie and Zack.

Kendra Little

Assistant Head Coach

▶ First Year

Little is in her first season at North Texas and is one of the most decorated golfers in University of Oregon history, and also held full status on the LPGA Symetra Tour from 2013-15.

Little, an Oregon native, was a three-time All Pac-10 selection with the Ducks, having played in Eugene from 2007-11. She competed in every single event during her four years in the Pacific Northwest while at Oregon and was a four-time event champion during her collegiate career. She holds the current program record for a single tournament, after firing a -12 (207) at the Branch Law Firm/Dick McGuire Invitational in 2009.

Little played in five USGA events, at two women's amateurs and a trio of United States girls juniors, while also competing as a professional at the U.S. Women's Open in 2013.

Sandra Palmer

North Texas '64

Perhaps the greatest woman golfer to ever come from North Texas never actually struck a drive or made a putt for the Mean Green.

That's because when Sandra Palmer -- a winner of 21 career LPGA Tour victories and a National Collegiate Hall of Famer -- went to North Texas, the school did not sponsor women's golf as a varsity sport.

Palmer was an accomplished golfer by the time she attended North Texas from 1959-63, where she showed her enthusiasm for athletics by serving as a cheerleader and becoming a member of the Green Jacket booster club. After she graduated from North Texas in 1964 with a bachelor of science degree in education, Palmer joined the LPGA Tour. As a professional, she captured 21 LPGA Tour wins and surpassed the $1 million mark in career earnings.

Palmer, a 1994 inductee into the North Texas Athletic Hall of Fame, took up the game of golf at the age of 13 and counts the legendary Harvey Penick as one of the teachers who greatly influenced her career.

She won the West Texas Amateur Champion four times and while at North Texas Palmer was a runner-up at the 1961 National Collegiate Championship and winner of the Texas State Amateur in 1963.

After joining the LPGA in 1964, Palmer failed to win a tournament her first seven years on the tour. However, she won at least one LPGA tournament in each of the next seven seasons. She won a career-high four tournaments in 1973 and in 1975 she claimed three titles, including a U.S. Women's Open championship that helped earn her LPGA Player of the Year honors. She narrowly lost the 1976 Open title in an 18-hole playoff to JoAnne Carner.

In 1986 Palmer won the final event of her career -- the Mayflower Classic -- in a sudden-death playoff. She later went on to win the Sprint Senior Challenge from 1991-95.

Palmer, who was named North Texas Alumnus of the Year in 1977, was recognized as one of the LPGA's top 50 players and teachers in 2000 when the LPGA celebrated its 50th anniversary.

Nina Reis

Ladies European Tour LPGA Tour

Former University of North Texas women's golf star Nina Reis played professionally for 10 years. She played two years on the LPGA Tour and eight with the Ladies European Tour.

On the Ladies European Tour, Reis played in 58 tournaments and posted eight top 10 finishes over nine years. She posted a seventh-place finish at the Tenerife Ladies Open during the 2010 season. She finished 78th on the Henderson Money List with (Euro) 22,285 in season's earnings.

In 2009, Reis played in 16 tournaments on the Ladies European Tour with her best finish a tie for 18th at the Tenerife Ladies Open, followed by a tie for 19th at the Randstad Open de France Dames.

In 2008, Reis played in 16 tournaments on the Ladies European Tour after earning her full card by finishing 28th at the Final Qualifying School. She finished 20th in the 2008 final exemption rankings and 22nd in the New Star MoneyList for 2008. Reis posted four Top 10 finishes in 2008, including two second-place results.

Reis earned her LPGA Tour card for the 2006 season after finishing 18th at the LPGA Qualifying School, earning one of 24 tour cards handed out. She played two full seasons on the LPGA tour and was a non-exempt player for the 2008 season.

"I was very excited to play on the LPGA-tour in 2006," said Reis. "It has been a dream of mine since I was a kid. I was so glad when I made the card, I jumped up and down. Q-school is a long and intense week and after making it through there I was very proud of myself."

Reis was a two-time all-conference selection while at North Texas in 2000 and 2001. In 2001 she led the team in stroke average and was named to the All-Sun Belt Conference team. In 2000, Reis was named to the first-team All-Big West squad. Reis had six top-10 finishes her freshman season and finished tied for fifth at the Big West Conference Championship.

In 2005, Reis won three events on the Telia Tour en route to winning the Tour's Order of Merit. She finished fifth at the OTP Bank Ladies Central European Open, an event on the Ladies European Tour. She tied for 16th at the LPGA Qualifying Tournament to earn exempt status for the 2006 LPGA Tour season.

Reis was a Swedish National Team member from 1997-2002. In 2001, she was the Ladies European Team Champion.
