Carl Sheffield Jr.

Director of Track & Field

Sixth Year as Director; 22nd at NT ▶ UTA '93

Director of Track & Field Carl Sheffield enters his sixth season at the helm at North Texas and 22nd year overall.

In 2016-17, the men's team placed ninth and the women's team finished ninth at the 2017 C-USA Outdoor Track and Field Championships. The women's team was led by Freshman of the Year Kristyn Archuleta, who won javelin with a school-record throw of 49.39 meters. Classmate Breanna Eckels placed second in the long jump and senior James Coleman took third in the 3000-meter steeplechase.

Six track and field athletes qualified for NCAA West Preliminaries in James Cole, Collin Heard, Javier Lopez-Ibarra, James Coleman, Breanna Eckels, and Kristyn Archuleta. Susannah Lynch, Coleman, Lopez-Ibarra were named to the C-USA All-Academic team.

In 2015-16, the men's team placed fifth and the women's sixth at the 2016 C-USA Outdoor Track and Field championships. The women's team was led by graduate student Chastity Stewart, who took home two first-place finishes in the 100 and 400-meter hurdles, and was a part of the second-place finish in the women's 4x100-meter relay. The men's squad came away with 15 top-10 finishes, including a first-place finish by Kevone Kennedy in the discus, and a second-place finish by Jordan Faughtenberry in the pole vault.

Eight track and field athletes qualified for NCAA West Preliminaries in Mona Landry, Jazmine Martin, Collin Heard, Nadiyah El-Amin, Bryce McAndrew, Siara Obasuyi, Chastity Stewart, and Eddie Wilcox. Connor Bey and Susie Kemper were named to the C-USA All-Academic team and both earned CoSIDA Academic All-District awards. Stewart qualified for NCAA nationals in two events (100 and 400-meter hurdles), finishing 22nd in both events in Eugene, Ore.

In 2015, Sheffield helped coach nine student-athletes qualify for the NCAA West Preliminaries during the outdoor season. Senior Shahaf Bereni qualified in the high jump and finished in the top 25 with a jump of 1.73 meters.

At the 2015 Conference USA Outdoor Championships, Sheffield helped the men's team finish sixth with three podium finishes and 14 top-8 finalists. On the women's side, two student-athletes came in the top-3 and 10 finished in the top eight.

During the indoor season, the men's team finished fifth and the women's team came in fourth thanks to three individual wins from Troy Taylor (3000 meter run), Shahaf Bereni (High Jump) and Susie Kemper (1 mile).

Under Sheffield, the Mean Green has continued to see success at the national level. North Texas has sent at least one athlete to the NCAA Championships in nine out of the last 11 years.

At the helm of the prestigious track and field program at North Texas, Sheffield has led the Mean Green to two conference championships and two runner-up titles in the last five years. The women's outdoor program won back-to-back titles in 2012 and 2013, while the women's indoor team picked up second-place honors in 2012 and 2013. The 2012 outdoor title was the best finish for the women since winning the championship in 2003.

Sheffield also guided the men's team to the most individual outdoor champions, five in 2012, since 2008 when North Texas had six individual outdoor champions.

Individually, Sheffield has been recognized for his team's success. He was named the Sun Belt Conference Outdoor Coach of the Year in 2012 and 2013. He was also named the indoor coach of the year in 2012.

In 2014, Sheffield coached both Clinton Collins and Chastity Stewart to the NCAA Championship with Collins earning All-American honors with a 15th-place finish in the semifinal round of the men's 400. Both Collins and Stewart were also individual champions at the 2014 Conference USA Conference Championship.

Sheffield guided 12 athletes to qualify for the NCAA West Preliminaries in 2014. At NCAA West Prelims, the 4X400M Relay team of Connor Bey, Clinton Collins, Collin Heard and Anthony Hamilton placed 18th, and freshman Elisha Peters placed 25th in the women's high jump.

In 2013, track and field sent a combined three athletes to the NCAA Finals. It was the first time that three Mean Green athletes participating in individual events went to the NCAA Championships since 1983.

Shahaf Bereni's sixth-place finish at the NCAA West Prelims ensured her a spot at the NCAA Championships. Bereni placed seventh at the championships with a record-breaking jump of 1.83 meters, one of the top finishes in school history.

Steven White finished his career with a third-place finish in the men's 400-meter hurdles in a school record 49.32 at the NCAA Championships. White's third-place finish is the best for North Texas by an individual or relay team since Bill Schmidt finished second in the men's javelin at the championships in 1970.

In 2012, White was named an USTFCA Second-Team All-American after finishing 14th in the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships in the 400-meter hurdles. White also participated in the U.S. Olympic Trials.

Sheffield spent 12 years coaching as a Mean Green track & field assistant coach from 1996 to 2007 before departing for an opportunity to be the performance coach at the Michael Johnson Training Center in McKinney, Texas.

Under Sheffield's guidance as the sprints and hurdles coach at North Texas, his athletes established or tied over 20 school records and earned more than 70 all-conference awards from 1996-2007. The Mean Green won four team championships with Sheffield on staff, two each on the men's and women's sides.

He brings enhanced credentials through his work at the Michael Johnson Training Center where he focused on improving the ability of his athletes to integrate linear speed concepts through biomechanics, motor control and performance analysis.

Sheffield began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at LSU in 1988. The Tigers went on to win a string of 11 consecutive NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Championships. He also coached national-caliber athletes with Nike-sponsored teams in Texas and along the Atlantic coast before his first stint at North Texas.

A native of Dallas, Sheffield was one of the top-five hurdlers in the state while attending Skyline High School and attended UTA on scholarship as a high hurdler.

After earning his bachelor's degree from UTA in 1993, Sheffield earned his Master of Science from North Texas in exercise physiology in 1996. In addition to his coaching duties, he served as an adjunct instructor for North Texas from 2005-07 for the Department of Kinesiology.

Dave Barnett

Assistant Coach

Second Year ▶ UTSA '06

Burnett enters his second season with North Texas as an assistant coach.

In 2016-17, Barnett coached Breanna Eckels to a second place finish in the long jump.

Six track and field athletes qualified for NCAA West Preliminaries in James Cole, Collin Heard, Javier Lopez-Ibarra, James Coleman, Breanna Eckels, and Kristyn Archuleta. Susannah Lynch, Coleman, Lopez-Ibarra were named to the C-USA All-Academic team.

Burnett came to North Texas after spending the last five seasons as the top assistant at Division II power Western Washington. Burnett was the 2014 USTFCCCA West Region Assistant Coach of the Year leading the Vikings to five top 25 NCAA team finishes.

Burnett has helped produced five Great Northwest Athletic Conference championships at Western Washington (two men's indoor, three men's outdoor) and has coached 10 student-athletes achieve All-America honors. He also coached 27 GNAC champions and five USTFCCCA academic All-America honorees.

Before Western Washington, Burnett spent five seasons (2006-11) as an assistant coach at UTSA, earning Southland Conference Assistant Coach of the Year honors all five seasons. During UTSA tenure, Roadrunners won seven conference team track championships (five indoor and two outdoor). He coached 18 Midwest Regional all-stars, 20 league champions and 12 school record setters.

Among athletes coached were sprinter Teddy Williams (currently plays special teams with NFL's Carolina Panthers), a four-time All-America who reached semifinals in 100 meters at 2008 U.S. Olympic Trials, and William Vesse, a four-time SLC champion in the 110 hurdles, who finished fourth in the 2008 Nigerian Olympic Trials.

In 2009, the UTSA Athletic Department created David Burnett Roadrunner Pride Award to honor hard working student-athlete showing dedication and school pride. As a former UTSA student-athlete, Burnett earned the inaugural Southland Conference Steve McCarty Citizenship Award as senior as top overall student athlete in the conference, helping the Roadrunners to its first league indoor title. Twice a team captain, he was a 10-time all-conference performer, winning the 400 at the league indoor meet in 2005 and ranking 11th nationally in the 100 in 2002.

Burnett was twice a Midwest Regional qualifier, a four-time member of the SLC Commissioners Honor Roll, a NCAA Inspiration Award nominee and a semifinalist for the John Wooden Golden Cup Inspiration Award.

Burnett earned a bachelor's degree at UTSA in 2006, majoring in kinesiology. He also began work on a master's degree while coaching for the Roadrunners. Burnett has earned the USA weightlifting sports performance certification, USA Track and Field level 1 certification and the USTFCCCA advanced strength and conditioning specialist certification.

Burnett, whose family is from Jamaica, attended Carroll High School in Corpus Christi, Texas. There he was a three-sport star, being named the South Texas Athlete of the Year as a senior, twice earning all-state honors in track and receiving All-America recognition in soccer.

Burnett is married to the former Jessica Gertz. She was a track athlete at Concordia University, St. Paul and Minnesota State University, Mankato. They recently welcomed their first child Ezekiel in August 2016.

By the Numbers:

- Athletes coached at Western Washington have earned:
- 5- Top 25 USTFCCCA National Team Finishes
- 12- USTFCCCA Division II All Americans
- 34- GNAC champions
- 48- School records
- 5- GNAC Conference Championship Team titles
- 175- GNAC All Conference honors
- 5- USTFCCCA Academic All Americans

Athletes coached at UTSA have earned:

- 1- National Football League Super Bowl Championship participant
- 2- Olympic Trials qualifiers
- 12- UTSA School records
- 4- USTFCCCA Division I All Americans
- 21- Southland Conference champions

Derek Mackel

Assistant Coach

Eighth Year ▶ New Mexico '06

Derek Mackel begins his eighth season as an assistant track & field coach at North Texas after a three-year stint at the University of New Mexico.

Mackel works primarily with the pole vaulters, long jumpers, triple jumpers, high jumpers and multi-event athletes.

During his six seasons at North Texas, Mackel has coached one All-American in Shahaf Bereni, 26 all-conference student-athletes, 21 NCAA Preliminary participants and has seen seven school records broken.

In 2016, three of Mackel's athletes advanced to the NCAA Preliminary round in senior Eddie Wilcox (HJ), senior Mona Landry (LJ, 4x100) and Jazmine Martin (TJ). Wilcox became the C-USA indoor high jump champion clearing 2.17 meters. In outdoors, Wilcox matched his career high at 2.17 meters to set the North Texas outdoor high jump record. In pole vault, Mackel coached Gabe McAdams and Jordan Faughtenberry to podium finishes at the C-USA outdoor championships.

In 2015, Mackel helped coach three student-athletes who qualified for the NCAA West Prelims in Mona Landry (100 meter dash, long jump), Shahaf Bereni (high jump) and Jazmine Martin (triple jump).

Mackel was a part of Bereni's first-place finish in the high jump at the C-USA Indoor Championship and a third-place finish at the C-USA Outdoor Championship. He also coached eight top-5 finishes and three podium finishes in Derek Richard (pole vault) and Eddie Wilcox (high jump).

Mackel's guidance of the 2014 jump squad sent three athletes to the NCAA preliminary round. Mona Landry earned third team all-conference honors in the C-USA Outdoor Championship and two other student-athletes earned all-conference status.

During 2013, junior Shahaf Bereni advanced to the NCAA Championship final and became the second jumper from North Texas to earn All-American honors with a seventh-place showing at 1.83 meters (6'0"), a school record.

Chelsea Hermes broke the school record in the heptathlon at the 2013 Sun Belt Outdoor Conference Championships, and Bereni broke the SBC Championships record for the second consecutive year in the high jump.

In his second season at North Texas, Mackel's athletes brought down two records at the 2012 Sun Belt Outdoor Conference Championship when Bereni won the women's high jump, qualifying her to the NCAA West Prelims, and Hermes claimed the No. 1 spot in North Texas history during the heptathlon finishing the two-day competition with 5056 points and a silver medal.

The 2012 campaign saw big improvements from the women's pole vaulters as Sarah Vann took home all-conference honors during both the indoor and outdoor championships. All together, the jumps group would string 42 points up for the team score en route to being crowned team champions.

In his first season at North Texas, Mackel worked with the throwers and jumpers. He quickly made an impact as one school record fell, two vaulters qualified for the NCAA West Preliminary Round and a long jumper would earn a silver medal at the Jr. Pan-Am Championships.

In his time at New Mexico, Mackel coached pole vaulter Kyle Walker to a second-place finish, All-Mountain West Conference honors and a spot in the NCAA West Preliminary Round with a vault of 5.35m (17'4").

Mackel also worked with Sandy Fortner, the Mountain West Conference Heptathlon Champion (5723) and a qualifier to the NCAA Outdoor Championships in the heptathlon. Fortner was named the Mountain West Female Athlete of the Year in 2010. Mackel mentored pole vaulter Robert Caldwell who would go on to earn All-American honors at the 2008 NCAA outdoor championship with a sixth-place finish.

Mackel, the 2006 NCAA Midwest Regional pole vault champion, also set the Midwest Regional record in that event at 5.51m (18' 1") and was one of the great success stories in UNM track & field history. He began as an unrecruited walk-on in 2002, with a best vault of under 12' out of high school. As a Lobo, Mackel improved by more than six feet during his collegiate career, earning six letters, three All-MWC conference honors and was named MWC Athlete of the Week and Midwest Region Male Athlete of the Year.

He is a 2006 graduate of the University of New Mexico, receiving his bachelor's degree in university studies and received a master's degree in exercise science from the University of New Mexico in 2010.

Kevin Williams

Assistant Coach

First Year ▶ Oklahoma '13

Williams is entering his first year at North Texas as cross country coach and assistant coach for track and field.

Williams comes to the Mean Green after spending two seasons at the University of Portland. The 2016-2017 year was filled with accomplishments, including a West Coast Conference title and Cross Country Nationals at large bid for the Lady Pilots. Lauren LaRocco earned All-America and was West Coast Conference individual champion. The women also qualified six distance athletes for the NCAA West Regional Championships and two Pilots, Grace McConnochie and Taryn Rawlings qualified for the NCAA Outdoor National Championships.

The Pilot men also had a great 2016-2017 earning an automatic bid to the NCAA Cross Country Championships where they finished 13th. The season was highlighted by five Pilots earning All-West Region honors. On the track, the Pilots qualified an athlete to the NCAA West Region in every distance event (eight total) and had a program record eight men under 30:00 for 10k (most in the NCAA). Jeff Thies and Noah Schutte both advanced to the NCAA final in their respective events earning themselves All-America honors. Junior Jeff Thies also set the school record in the 1500m multiple times.

During the 2015-2016 season, LaRocco earned All-America honors in both the 5k and 10k leading the Lady Pilots to their highest finish at the NCAA Outdoor Track Championships. The women also earned the No. 2 overall GPA for NCAA Division I Track and Field. Senior Reid Buchanan earned All-America honors in the indoor 3k and outdoor 10k. After an incredible season where he broke three program records and achieved multiple nation leading times, senior Woody Kincaid finished eighth at the US Olympic Trials in the 5000m where he was the top collegiate finisher. Both Buchanan and Kincaid have begun successful professional careers since graduating.

As a student-athlete, Williams competed in 2008-13 at the University of Oklahoma, where he graduated with a degree in Marketing. Williams was a member of the first four teams to qualify for the NCAA Cross Country National Championships where the team had three consecutive top ten finishes (fifth, sixth, and eighth). As a team, the Sooners were twice Midwest Regional Champions and individually Williams was a three-time All-Region placer. Williams was also team captain his senior year. On the track, Williams was a multi-time school record holder, and was all-Big 12 in four different events. He qualified for four NCAA West Regional Championships and was second team All-America in both the Indoor 5,000m and Outdoor 10,000m. The Sooners also captured their only Indoor Big 12 title in Williams' freshmen season in 2009. Williams was also the male student athlete of the year at OU in 2013.

Williams is originally from Lakewood, Colorado where he was a seven-time state champion for D'Evelyn High School. During his prep career, Williams qualified for the US Junior National Team in cross country and competed in the 2008 World Cross Country Championships. Williams was a 2007 Footlocker Cross Country Nationals Qualifier, and earned All-America status on the track in the 3,200m at the Nike Outdoor Nationals.

Williams is married to the former Molly Ferguson. She was a track athlete at the University of Oklahoma. Together they have one son, Thomas.

Brendon Kelso

Assistant Coach

Fourth Year ▶ Hardin-Simmons '12

Brendon Kelso is in his Fourth year as an assistant track & field coach at North Texas after serving two years as a volunteer assistant coach. Kelso works primarily with the throwers.

In 2016, Kelso helped the Mean Green throwers to two school records. Senior Ngozi Nweke broke the weight throw mark with a throw of 17.70 meters at the Houston Indoor invite. Nweke also threw the second best discus mark in school history at 49.15 meters at the John Jacobs invite during the outdoor season.

Sophomore Kevone Kennedy became a conference champion in the men's discus. Senior Riley Donovan had a breakout season finishing top-10 in three events (discus, hammer throw, shot put) at the Conference USA championships. Donovan's personal best hammer throw mark of 56.42 was second best in school history. During the indoor season, Donovan finished fourth in the weight throw at the C-USA championships.

Senior Victoria Clark improved her school record in the hammer throw at 55.52 meters, earning second at the C-USA championships. Kelso guided freshman javelin thrower Javier Lopez to a seventh place finish in conference and his personal best throw of 60.26 meters was third best in school history.

During the 2015 season, Kelso guided the Mean Green throwers to two school records. The first of which occurred during indoor competition when Deja McKnight launched a throw of 17.27 meters (56'8") in the weight throw at the New Mexico Classic to solidify the furthest throw in North Texas history.

McKnight also posted the No. 3 throw in the shot put at North Texas with a toss of 14.69m (48' 2.5"), which was good for third place at the Conference USA Championships.

The second school record fell during the outdoor season when Victoria Clark unleashed a massive hammer throw measuring 55.14 meters (180' 11").

In 2014, Kelso helped coach Tom Kalisky to qualify to NCAA West National Championships Preliminary Rounds in the javelin throw with a monster throw of 64.02 meters (210'), the second-furthest throw in school history with a new rules javelin.

In his first year at North Texas, Kelso helped coach Deja McKnight to a second-place finish at the Indoor Sun Belt Conference Championships. McKnight, Victoria Clark and Ngozi Nweke claimed three of the eight scoring places in the shot put, adding 17 points to the women's team score tying the 200 meter dash for the most points scored in a single event and paved the way for the women's team to win the 2013 Women's Sun Belt Conference Outdoor Track & Field Championship.

In that same year, Aaron Sirles broke the school record in the hammer throw and took third place in the shot put at both the Indoor and Outdoor Sun Belt Conference Championships. Sirles capped his senior year with a personal best discus throw, qualifying him for the NCAA West Prelims.

Kelso also helped coach Charleston Lewis to break the school record in the 35lb weight throw. Solidifying a fourth-place finish in men's weight throw during the Sun Belt Conference Championships, John Garrish threw a personal best and school record of 18.56 meters (60' 10.75"), surpassing Lewis' mark set earlier that season. Garrish also set the current school record in the hammer throw with a launch of 58.34 meters (191' 5"), surpassing Sirles' mark set earlier that year.

As a student-athlete at Hardin-Simmons University, Kelso competed in the 2009 DIII National Championships in the javelin throw and holds the school record in the event. He was a four-time American Southwest Conference Champion in multiple throwing events, including the javelin, shot put, and discus and was once named American Southwest Conference Championships Outstanding Field athlete and twice won the Conference Championships High Point Award.

While earning a bachelor's and master's degree from Hardin-Simmons, Kelso was named the American Southwest Conference Men's Track and Field Distinguished Scholar Athlete three times and was a member of the USTFCCA DIII Men's All-Academic Track and Field team in 2009. Kelso is married to Alyssa Kelso.
