Sujay Lama

Head Coach

Eighth Year ▶ Luther College '92

Sujay Lama has established a winning tradition at North Texas.

Lama has led the Mean Green to three conference championships in the last four years, including back-to-back crowns in 2012 and 2013.

The Mean Green capped off one of the best seasons in school history in 2013 with a second straight Sun Belt Conference Championship and a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

In 2012, the Mean Green won its second conference championship, defeating Florida International, 4-2. The Mean Green went on to play Nebraska in the NCAA tournament, losing 4-0.

The 2012 squad also produced the program's highest ranking of No. 40, finishing the season at No. 55. This comes just two seasons, after the Mean Green received its first national ranking of No. 66.

Lama has become the program's winningest coach with a 95-66 record, bringing his career record to 203-150.

Lama also became the first coach in program history to receive coach of the year honors multiple times. He was named Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year in 2010, 2012 and 2013. Lama was named the USPTA Collegiate Coach of the Year for the state of Texas in 2009.

It didn't take long for Lama to leave his mark on the program. In just four seasons, Lama took the Mean Green from last in the Sun Belt to first.

Working with mainly a group of walk-ons during the 2006-07 school year, Lama went 2-19 in his first season with the Mean Green. The team improved to double-digits wins the next season and then advanced to the conference semifinals in 2008-09.

The 2010 season was a breakout year for Lama and the Mean Green. The team captured the program's first Sun Belt Conference championship with a win over No. 49 FIU. The conference championship earned the team an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament appearance, the first ever in school history. After a loss to No. 32 Tulsa, North Texas finished its historic season with a 17-7 record.

Lama was also named a finalist for the prestigious Giant Steps Award during 2009. In the fall of 2008, the Mean Green tallied individual wins over national contenders such as LSU, Ohio State, Texas, Texas A&M, Texas Tech, Baylor, SMU, Rice, and Houston.

Lama led North Texas to a 13-9 record in the spring of 2008, its best record since 1986-87. In 2007, he led the program to its best fall season in history. The Mean Green turned the heads of the nation's premier programs, notching individual wins over Ohio State, Kentucky, LSU, Oklahoma State, Baylor, Texas Tech and many others.

North Texas success has not been limited to the court, as the Mean Green has picked up ITA All-Academic team honors five times.

Prior to becoming North Texas' 10th coach in program history, Lama spent eight years as the women's tennis head coach at the University of Illinois.

The Fighting Illini saw significant improvement with Lama at the helm. In his first year, Lama transformed the Illini from 8-13, 4-7 in Big Ten play, and ninth in the conference the previous season to a squad that was ranked No. 10 in the region and No. 75 in that nation.

The Illini continued to see significant improvement during Lama's eight years. In 2003-04 the Illini went 17-6, posting their best winning percentage since Illinois's first team went 6-0 in 1975. Lama's 2003-04 squad also earned the highest national ranking in program history, No. 16. In 2003, the Orange and Blue knocked off top-ranked Duke, 4-3, at the UI Atkins Tennis Center.

Lama's teams reached a number of milestones during his eight years in Champaign-Urbana. The Illini won their first NCAA Tournament match in May 2001. The program also had their first Big Ten Freshman of the Year, the Rookie of the Year in the Midwest Region, ten All-Big Ten players, four Big Ten Medal of Honor players, 13 ITA Scholar-Athletes and two Academic All-Americans. UI's women's tennis players earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition 39 times under Lama.

During Lama's eight years at Illinois, the Illini went 108-84 with a Big Ten record of 60-34. He produced squads that made five NCAA team tournament appearances as well as five NCAA individual tournament appearances.

Before his stint at Illinois, Lama served as the top assistant under then-Florida coach Andy Brandi from 1995-98, helping the Gators win two NCAA titles, three SEC crowns and post three undefeated dual match seasons, including the 1998 campaign. Lama was honored for his contributions as the 1997 ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year in the South Region.

Prior to Florida, Lama was the Senior Staff Professional at the Van Der Meer Tennis Center in Hilton Head, S.C., where he worked with the elite player development program (for touring pros and top junior players) from 1992-95. A noted teacher

Jeff Hammond begins his first season with the Mean Green tennis team as an associate head coach.

Hammond was hired as the assistant women's tennis coach at SMU in June of 2012. Previously he spent six years at TCU, serving as the head coach from 2007-10, after two seasons as an assistant. As head coach, Hammond led the Horned Frogs to four consecutive Mountain West titles, four straight NCAA appearances and achieved top-25 team rankings each year. He was named the Mountain West Coach of the Year in 2008 and 2009. Hammond coached three players to All-America honors and saw several players reach the finals and semifinals in the doubles and singles NCAA indoor and outdoor championships.

As an assistant at TCU, he was tabbed the ITA Southwest Region Assistant Coach of the Year as he helped the Horned Frogs advance to the NCAA Round of 16 as a team in 2006. He coached three players to All-America honors including the 2006 ITA All-American Tournament Singles Champion.

During the 2003 and 2004 seasons, Hammond served as the volunteer assistant coach for the nationally-ranked Southern California men's team. He helped guide the 2004 USC squad to a co-Pac-10 team championship and to the NCAA semifinals. The Trojans finished No. 4 in the rankings.

Hammond started his coaching career at University High in Irvine, Calif., in 2000 after serving as an assistant tennis pro at The Pointe Hilton on South Mountain in Phoenix. During his two-year stint with the boys' varsity tennis squad at University High, Hammond led his team to two California Interscholastic Federation team championships. Following the 2000 title, he was named the Orange County Register Coach of the Year.

Hammond earned his bachelor's degree in history from the University of Vermont in 1993, where he was a four-year starter on the tennis team with a .694 winning percentage in singles. As a senior, he was co-captain, and in 1992, he helped lead the Catamounts to the North Atlantic Conference championship. Following graduation, he spent time playing on the United States Tennis Association Pro Circuit. In 2001, he finished ranked No. 1 in Men's 30s Singles in Southern California and #10 in the United States.

"It is an honor to be given the opportunity to become part of the North Texas tennis program," said Hammond. "Coach Lama has done a tremendous job. Success has always followed him. Three conference titles in four years reflect his passionate commitment to excellence, and his holistic approach puts the program in a position to get even better. I look forward to many years of hard work and success and thank Coach and administration for their welcoming of me and my family."
