Mean Green Rebound To Defeat South Alabama 6-1

MIAMI, Fla. - Mean Green tennis rebounded Thursday afternoon and defeated South Alabama 6-1 on the campus of Florida International University.

North Texas (4-9) opened up the match with two of the three matches in doubles in relatively convincing fashion.

At the No. 1 slot, Irina Paraschiv and Barбора Vykydalova ran through the Jaguar duo of Katie Welch and Alina Volmann with a score of 8-3.

No. 3 doubles saw senior Amy Joubert team up with junior Paula Dinuta to dominate the No. 3 team from USA 8-0.

Singles was much of the same for the Mean Green.

North Texas won all but one set in singles play, but lost a point in the process.

Dinuta, who has been battling illness for much of the year, won her first set against Chana Hine 7-6 before having to retire and surrender the match to USA due to illness.

Paraschiv continued her hot streak in singles, winning her bout 6-2, 6-3. The win runs her streak to seven of the last eight singles matches.

Freshman Carolina Barboza had a stellar performance as she stepped in for the fatigued Ranganathan, winning in straight sets, 6-0, 6-0 over the Jaguars Julia Ivanova.

The Mean Green will look to win back-to-back matches for the first time this season when it takes on UTEP on Friday, March 25.

Sujay Lama

Head Coach

► Fifth Year

Sujay Lama, who led the University of Illinois to five NCAA Tournament appearances, took over the reigns of the North Texas Tennis program on June 14, 2006, and it didn't take him long to make an impact.

Lama led North Texas to a 17-6 record in the spring of 2009, its best record since '86-87. In 2007, he led the program to its best fall season in history. The Mean Green turned the heads of the nation's premier programs, notching individual wins over Ohio State, Kentucky, LSU, Oklahoma State, Baylor, Texas Tech and many others in the fall of '07.

"I am very excited about the opportunity to work at the University of North Texas," said Lama. "This is a tremendous academic institution in a great location. We have one of the premier tennis facilities in the country and an athletic director who is dynamic and has great vision. Our goal is to build a tennis program that demands excellence on the courts and in the classroom. We want to be one of best programs in the country but make sure our student-athletes enjoy the process and the family atmosphere we have built."

Lama compiled a dual-meet record of 108-84, including a 57-25 mark in Big Ten play, during his eight-year career as the Illini's head coach. In addition to leading the school to five NCAA Tournament appearances, his team ranked as high as No. 16 in the nation in the spring of 2004.

North Texas is the third stop in Lama's collegiate coaching career, also serving as the top assistant at the Univ. of Florida from 1995 to 1998 before taking over at Illinois.

Lama turned the Illinois tennis program around right away, taking the Illini from a ninth-place finish in the Big Ten the year before his arrival to a third-place finish in his first year at the helm. In 2003-04 the Illini went 17-6, posting their best winning percentage since Illinois' first team went 6-0 in 1975. Additionally, Lama led Illinois to a victory over top-ranked Duke, 4-3, at the UI Atkins Tennis Center in 2003.

Among the other milestones the Illinois women's tennis program reached under Lama is winning its first-ever NCAA Tournament match in May of 2001.

During Lama's time at Illinois, he coached the tennis program's first Big Ten Freshman of the Year, the Rookie of the Year in the Midwest Region, nine All-Big Ten players, four Big Ten Medal of Honor players, 13 ITA Scholar-Athletes and two Academic All-Americans. UI women's tennis players earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition 42 times under Lama.

-Sujay Lama

While at Florida, he helped lead the Gators to two NCAA titles, three SEC crowns and three undefeated dual-match seasons. Lama was honored for his contribution as the 1997 ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year in the South Region.

Prior to Florida, Lama was the Senior Staff Professional at the Van Der Meer Tennis Center in Hilton Head, S.C., where he worked with the elite player development program (for touring pros and top junior players) from 1992-95. A noted teacher and clinician, Lama has worked at tennis camps across the United States, Europe and Asia. He has earned the highest certification level with the USPTR and the USPTA, and is a USTA Certified High Performance Coach.

He was a traveling coach on the WTA tour for several players including two top twenty ranked Amanda Coetzer (South Africa) and Naoko Sawamatsu (Japan). Lama has coached at 12 grand slam events including Wimbledon, U.S Open, Australian Open and French Open.

In his playing career, Lama was the top-ranked player in Nepal from 1989-91 and reached No. 50 in the International Tennis Federation (ITF) junior world singles rankings. He represented his country in several international tournaments, including the Asian Games in Beijing, China in 1990.

The Nepal native attended Luther College in Decorah, Iowa, from 1988-92 and was a two-time Volvo Collegiate All-American in singles (1991-92). He also earned Senior Player of the Year honors in the Midwest Region in 1992 and was ranked No. 5 in NCAA Division III singles. Lama dominated the Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic Conference the four years he competed at Luther.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT SUJAY LAMA

“Sujay Lama is one of the up-and-coming women’s coaches in the country. With his knowledge, work ethic, enthusiasm and passion for coaching, it will bring the North Texas women’s tennis to new heights.”

-- Andy Brandi, Director of the Harold Solomon Tennis Institute former head coach at University of Florida, won three team and individual titles

“Sujay is one of the finest coaches in the world. He has helped me become a better person and coach. His passion for life is infectious, and it has brought him and those fortunate enough to be in his presence much success. He is the coach I would gladly send my daughter to play for. North Texas is going to become a contender with his leadership.”

-- Bryan Shelton, Head Coach, Georgia Tech, 2007 National Champions

“I have never worked with a finer coach than Sujay Lama. He deals with all aspects of the player from athletics to academics to their physical and mental well being. He believes all of these attributes need to be addressed in order to have a successful student-athlete.”

-- JoAnne Russell, former Wimbledon and NCAA Champion

He won the league’s singles and doubles titles and took conference MVP honors all four years of his collegiate career, leading his team to four IIAC titles. Lama put together a career singles record of 104-18 and captured two Rolex Midwest Regionals (1989 and 1991), while advancing to the semifinals of the Rolex National Intercollegiate Indoor Championship in 1991. Lama also made three NCAA Tournament appearances. He was inducted into the school’s athletic hall of fame in the fall of 2002.

He earned his bachelor’s degree from Luther College in 1992, earning GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America honors during his time there. He was the recipient of the U.S./Nepal Educational Foundation Scholarship from 1990-92. Lama has traveled in more than 50 countries and is fluent in English, German, Hindi and Nepalese. He has lived five or more years on three continents (Asia, Europe and North America).

Recently, Lama has lent his time and expertise to a unique venture he calls “Project Nepal”. He has helped raise over $12,000 each year to fund the education of 67 orphanage children in his hometown of Nepal (www.supportprojectnepal.com).

Lama is also currently writing a bi-weekly column for Nepalitimes. His column, Game Point, has been well received in his native country and throughout the world for its insight and expertise on the game of tennis and life.

Lama and his wife, Lynne, reside in Corinth with their nine-year-old daughter, Priya and four-year-old son, Siddhartha.
