

John A. Knauss Marine Policy Fellowship Program

February 2018

39

years of consistent opportunities for fellows to explore the national policy process

75

offices in the Washington, D.C. area have hosted fellows in the last three years*

842

fellows placed in federal departments and agencies

389

Fellows placed in the U.S. Congress

Since 1979, the National Sea Grant College Program (Sea Grant) has administered one of the nation's most prestigious marine policy fellowship programs. The Knauss fellowship has launched the careers of over 1,200 professionals with backgrounds in science, policy, management and law.

.....

1,231

fellows since 1979

50%

of alumni work for the federal government*

The John A. Knauss Marine Policy Fellowship offers direct experience working on the latest issues in ocean, coastal and Great Lakes management and research.

“The Knauss Fellowship did not help my career, it made my career. And it provided a conduit to my [previous] position in marine and coastal policy at NOAA.”

Jessica Foley,
2015 Executive Fellow

“The Knauss Fellowship gave me an experience unlike any I had before, and introduced me to the world of federal policy-making, which touches so many aspects of ocean conservation and fisheries.”

Thomas Farrugia,
2015 Legislative Fellow

More information at seagrant.noaa.gov/careers

*Numbers are approximate and based on available data

How to apply to the Knauss Marine Policy Fellowship

Before the application process begins:

1. Visit our website to learn more about the Knauss fellowship program.

seagrant.noaa.gov/Knauss

2. Start thinking about your application package. You won't be able to apply until the application process opens (usually mid-November) however you can start drafting your personal statement and think about who you might ask for recommendation letters.

3. Register for the Sea Grant e-newsletter and/or follow Sea Grant on social media to receive updates about fellowship opportunities.

seagrant.noaa.gov/News/social

Twitter: @SeaGrant Instagram: @SeaGrant_NOAA Facebook: @NOAA.SeaGrant

4. Prior to or during open "Federal Funding Opportunities" for fellowships, connect with your local Sea Grant program. Call or email them to let them know you are interested in applying. They will have advice for navigating the process. A list of Sea Grant programs and contact information can be found on the Sea Grant website.

seagrant.noaa.gov

Once you see that a funding/fellowship opportunity is open:

1. Find the announcement on www.grants.gov. Sea Grant includes links on its website.

2. Once on the grants.gov Grants Opportunity page, click the blue "Related Documents" tab and download the "Full Announcement" pdf. This is the Federal Funding Opportunity (FFO). It contains all project details and instructions for applying.

3. Read and follow all instructions outlined in the FFO.

4. Contact your state Sea Grant program and inform them you want to apply for the Knauss Fellowship. They will have additional information for you and advice about navigating the process. Applications must be submitted through a state Sea Grant program, not directly to grants.gov! See the "Program Locations" dropdown on <http://seagrant.noaa.gov/> for a list of state programs and contact information.

Note: if you attend school in a state which does not have a Sea Grant program, contact the National Sea Grant Office at oar.sg.fellows@noaa.gov. The National Office will direct you to a program through which you can apply.

You may also contact the National Sea Grant Office via email, OAR.SG.Fellows@noaa.gov, or phone, (301) 734-1085.