

NOAA Marine Debris Program Annual Art Contest Opens October 15th

The NOAA Marine Debris Program wants your help to raise awareness about the global problem of marine debris. We're looking for original and inspiring artwork from students around the country to feature in the annual Marine Debris Program calendar. So grab your art supplies, be creative, and show us:

1. How marine debris impacts the ocean and the Great Lakes environment.
2. What you are doing to help prevent marine debris.

CONTEST RULES

Criteria for Art & Description - Each entry must be composed of a piece of artwork and a description (on the entry form). All must meet the requirements below. Students are highly encouraged to check out the NOAA Marine Debris Program's website for information about marine debris: <https://marinedebris.noaa.gov>

Eligibility - All students in grades Kindergarten through 8th grade from all U.S. states and territories enrolled in recognized public, private, and home schools are eligible to participate. Schools, including home schools, must be in compliance with federal and state civil rights and nondiscrimination statutes. Students must work individually.

ARTWORK & DESCRIPTION REQUIREMENTS:

1. One entry per student
2. The entries must be on a single sheet of 8.5" x 11" paper, landscape.
3. Use white, non-glossy paper; do not laminate.
4. Any art medium may be used (e.g., colored pencils, crayons, paint); however computer graphics will not be accepted. Artwork must be hand-drawn by the student.
5. Artwork must be flat (e.g., no glued pieces or glitter) and able to be scanned.
6. Avoid labeling debris items with any brand names in the artwork.
7. A description of no more than 75 words must accompany the artwork (space provided on the entry form).
8. Teachers may send in as many entries as they would like.
9. Label each entry on the back in pencil (marker bleeds through the artwork) with student's name, age and grade, along with the teacher's name, school name, address, and telephone number.

Entry Form - There should be one entry form filled out per student. Please ensure that the entry form is filled out completely and legibly. All entries (entry form + artwork) must be submitted via mail (postmarked) no later than Friday, November 30, 2018.

Competition Process - A NOAA awards panel will collect all entries and select 13 winners based on the proportion of entries received from different grade levels and one overall winner. Entries (artwork and description) will be judged on the creativity, artistic presentation, and relevancy to the theme.

Entries (entry and release form + artwork) should be mailed to:
