

ANNOUNCEMENT OF FACULTY POSITION
JAZZ IMPROVISATION
DIVISION OF JAZZ STUDIES
COLLEGE OF MUSIC
UNIVERSITY OF NORTH TEXAS

DUTIES

Teach classes in jazz improvisation. Coach jazz small groups. Teach private lessons and classes in area of instrumental specialization. Preference will be given to specializations in piano, saxophone, or guitar. Research/creative activity in area of specialization. Other duties as appropriate to qualifications, which could include teaching courses in music business and technology. Participate in division, college, and university service activities.

QUALIFICATIONS

Required: Experience and accomplishments in the teaching of improvisation, jazz small group performance, and private lessons; master's degree in relevant field of music (required at time of appointment). Desirable: Doctoral degree in appropriate field of music. Professional experience may be considered in place of earned degrees.

RANK Full-time tenure-track position, Assistant Professor

SALARY Commensurate with qualifications and experience

STARTING DATE August 19, 2012

APPLICATION MATERIALS

All Applicants must apply online at: <http://facultyjobs.unt.edu>
Applicants must submit a letter of application, CV, and reference information.

In addition, candidates must send representative performance recordings electronically. Video recordings are required; audio recordings may be sent in addition to video recordings. Contact search chair John Murphy at john.murphy@unt.edu to arrange for transferring files. Additional materials, including letters of recommendation, may be required at a later date.

DEADLINE

To ensure full consideration, all materials must be received by November 21, 2011.

The College of Music, offering Bachelor's, Master's, and Doctoral Degrees to approximately 1,000 undergraduate and 500 graduate music majors, maintains nationally and internationally recognized programs in virtually all disciplines of music study, as well as one of the most comprehensive music libraries in the nation. Visit music.unt.edu for more information. The Jazz Studies program has been a leader in jazz education since 1946. It currently enrolls approximately 190 undergraduate majors and 60 master's-level majors. In 2012 it will begin offering the major in jazz studies under the DMA in Performance. Visit jazz.unt.edu for more information.

The University of North Texas is an AA/ADA/EOE committed to diversity in its educational programs.