PORTFOLIO REVIEWS FOR PRINTMAKING STUDENTS

All students admitted into UNT who wish to major in Studio Art will be designated as a Pre-Studio Art student until they complete the requirements to be accepted in a specific Studio Art concentration. Students who wish to pursue the Printmaking concentration should contact the Printmaking Area Coordinator during the freshman Core coursework so that they will be advised on printmaking course registration process. All Pre-Studio Art students must meet the following criteria of admission to the Printmaking concentration:

Complete at least 30 hours of college courses (including the following) and:

- Complete ART 1200 or 1301, 1440, 1450, 1500, 1510; ART 2350 or 2360 with a grade of C or better;
- Complete the two MENU 1 Printmaking courses with a grade of B or higher;
- Have at least a 2.5 GPA on the required Art courses;
- Have a minimum 2.0 UNT grade point average;
- Pass Printmaking Entry Review and file a Degree Plan.

Entry Review

To confirm the student's preparation for advanced studio work, all printmaking students must participate in Entry Review before completing 6 hours of 3000-level printmaking courses. The Printmaking Faculty evaluate each student's progress.

The review will consist of:

- Printmaking Portfolio
Students will submit a portfolio of prints demonstrating basic knowledge of at least two print media:
 - * Six editions from any of the following processes: etching, lithography, relief print, and/or screenprint. (Each edition must be an identical set of at least 3 prints to show competency with printing consistency.) (Two of the limited editions may be substituted with two cohesive series of 3 or more monotypes or two fully resolved artist's books.)
 - * At least two works on paper must be correctly matted according to professional standards.
 - * Markers of success will be sought in technical, conceptual, and formal quality as well as meaningful and cohesive content and care for craft/presentation.
- Verbal Participation in Review
Students are expected to describe their perception of the strengths, challenges, and future development of their work.
- Evaluation of Time Management Skills
Student must demonstrate above satisfactory time management skills as assessed by all of the student's current printmaking faculty.

Entry Review guidelines and requirements are posted at the Printmaking Critique Room door. Students who do not pass the review may request permission to resubmit an improved portfolio for review the following semester. A second failure to pass the review will automatically eliminate the student from the printmaking program. Students must pass this entry review and be poised to graduate within the next two regular semesters before enrolling in the Senior Print Studio ASTU 4300. Reviews are not conducted during summer sessions. Failure to participate in reviews at the required time will count as a failed review.

Review Results

Results of Entry Review and a summary assessment will be given to the student verbally at the conclusion of the review. A copy of the Review Evaluation Form may also be requested from the Printmaking Area Coordinator.

Transfer Credit

Special arrangements may be made to review the work of students transferring printmaking credit from another institution. Such students must have their work reviewed during their first semester at UNT in order to be admitted to further printmaking classes.

Senior Exit Review

An Exit Review is required of all Seniors in the College of Visual Arts and Design prior to graduation in order to establish that all basic competencies in the major are met. The Printmaking Exit Review occurs during the student's final enrollment in ASTU 4300 Print Studio. Graduating Seniors should identify themselves to their instructor during the first week of class. Exit Review guidelines and requirements are posted at the Printmaking Area Coordinator's office. During the Summer neither ASTU 4300 Print Studio nor Exit Reviews are offered.

STUDENTS WHO DO NOT HAVE AN OFFICIAL DEGREE PLAN ON FILE BY THE SEMESTER THEY PLAN TO GRADUATE MAY NOT APPLY FOR GRADUATION.
