Student Opportunities: Exchange Programs

- Support student exchange programs developed by your college.
- Build connections with the partner institution for other academic collaboration (research, scholar exchange).
- Faculty may explore establishing a new exchange agreement with an overseas university. New programs must show significant academic value to UNT students.
- Benefit: Students return to campus better prepared to contribute to meaningful classroom discussion.

Student Opportunities:

Affiliate Programs

- Familiarize yourself with the unique opportunities available to UNT students through affiliate programs.
- Programs include:
 - API – Direct enrollment at the London School of Economics
 - ISA - Euroscholars: Undergraduate research engagement at leading European universities
 - SFS – SFS Field Station in Peru for studies of biodiversity & development in the Andes-Amazon
 - SIT – Experiential learning classes plus internship on Health, Environment, and Traditional Chinese Medicine in China
- Benefit: Students have access to research, internships and coursework options that significantly increase their competitiveness for future study and employment.

Development Opportunities: Faculty Led Programs

- Leading Faculty Led Programs

 - 3:30 – 4:30p in Marquis 107
 - Offered once each semester (November/March)
 - Developing Student Learning Outcomes Workshop
 - Offered in the Fall semester (November)
- Benefits: Students deepen their connection to faculty through extended experiential learning. Faculty may extend their travel dates to conduct research abroad post-program.

Development Opportunities:

International Field Trips

- International Field Trip Registration
 - These are academic trips abroad that usually last 1-2 weeks and are offered in conjunction with a UNT course.
 - The Study Abroad Office's primary responsibility for this type of program is to provide risk management and emergency support.
- Benefits: Enhance student learning outcomes and internationalize UNT curriculum through first-hand application theory.

Development Opportunities: CIEE

- CIEE International Faculty Development Seminars
 - 1-2 week engagement through lectures and discussions, site visits and community-based activities, and scholarly exchange.
 - Examples:
 - China and Taiwan – Political Divergence, Culture Convergence and Economic Relevance
 - Dominican Republic – The State of Public Health in the D.R.: A Caribbean Case Study
 - Russia – World Fuels: Global Trends and Eurasian Perspectives

Development Opportunities: IES

- IES Abroad Faculty Development Seminars

- Present a paper or take part in a panel discussion while engaging in site visits and seminars with local faculty and experts.
- Examples:
 - Chile: IES Abroad Research Symposium: Emerging Economies & Markets
 - Netherlands: Sexuality and Gender in a Multicultural World
 - Germany: Paradise Lost? Challenging Perspectives on a Changing Europe

- Research Associates at IES Centers

- Be in residence at any Center for up to one month and also teach up to two guest lectures.
- Transportation to/from Center and housing allowance provided.
- Examples: Beijing, Cape Town and Milan Centers

- IES Teaching Grants

- Teach one course for a semester or in a summer program at select Centers.
- Transportation to/from Center, teaching stipend and housing allowance provided.
- Examples: Buenos Aires, Dublin and Vienna Centers.

Development Opportunities:

Site Visits

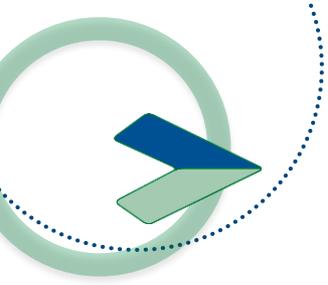

- Affiliate programs may seek out UNT faculty to participate in academic evaluations of their programs. These are often fully subsidized.
- Faculty may be asked to participate in affiliate familiarization trips to assess academic fit and quality on behalf of their college or department. Colleges are expected to provide matching funds.

Other Services

- International Travel Registration
 - UNT System Regulation mandates those travelling internationally for university business register their travel.
 - UNT provides international accident and emergency services insurance free of charge to faculty/staff engaging in university business.
 - Fee for students and guests of UNT.

Global Partnerships & Agreements

163 Agreements with 35 Countries (as of 02/01/2017)

Rationale: International Agreements

- Need:
 - Is there an accreditation, financial, and/or legal need for entering into the agreement?
- Reputation and Ranking:
 - Is the partner institution globally ranked?
 - Does the partnership enhance UNT's rankings and global reputation?
- Research and Education:
 - Does the partnership provide value-add academic and research opportunities that align with student and faculty interests?
- Revenue and Return-on-Investment (ROI):
 - What is the expected ROI of the partnership in terms of generating revenue, securing external funding, and/or providing sustainable collaborations?

Nancy Dreessen, Immigration Advisor and J-1 Specialist

Hosting J-1 Scholars

U.S. Department of State

- Administers the J-1 Exchange Visitor Program
- Visa Issuance at U.S. Consulates/Embassies

Purpose of the J Program

The general purpose of the Exchange Visitor Program is to promote international educational and cultural exchange to develop mutual understanding between the people of the United States and other countries.

As a non-immigrant visa type, all exchange visitors are expected to return to their home country upon completion of their program in order to share their exchange experiences.

J-I Scholars

- Scholars here to observe, lecture, conduct research, consult, or teach
- Have at least the equivalent of a U.S. Master's degree, or a Bachelor's degree with extensive experience
- Not possible for permanent / tenure track positions

- Short Term Scholars
 - 6 month maximum
- Research Scholars / Professors
 - 5 year maximum

Benefits of Inviting a J-1 Scholar

- Educational enrichment: Scholars facilitate the exchange of ideas and research in a variety of fields between people of the United States and people of other countries.

- Reputation/Recruitment: Through the exchange of scholars and students, we can build up our institution's reputation and recognition around the world. Additionally, this can help with recruitment. Students and scholars that have spent time at UNT may decide to return or recommend us.
