Membership

Any UNT Dallas student, faculty member, or staff member who subscribes to the purpose and basic policies of the organization may become a member of the organization subject only to compliance with the provisions of the constitution.

Officers

All officers/representatives must be currently enrolled students at the University. Officers cannot consist of all seniors. An officer must meet the following academic requirements:

Officer Roles:

Your student organization leadership team will play an important role in advancing the goals and objectives of your organization. It is crucial that you have committed students filling each leadership role and to create a process for the smooth transition of leadership offices from student to student each year. Each student organization should outline the roles of each organization office in its constitution. This list includes only the most standard officer roles, President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary. Many organizations will choose to have a greater number of executive board members or utilize a committee and chair structure for specific tasks.

- Facilitate executive board or officer meetings
- Represent the organization to the institution
- Meet weekly with the Advisor
- Coordinate officer transition with Advisor
- Be aware of all money matters
- Assist all executive officers

Committees: Committees may also be defined in your constitution/bylaws. A committee is a group of members in each organization that has a specific task or goal to complete. For example, a Fundraising Committee for the Fitness Club must come up with ideas to increase funds for the organization. You are able to create a committee for any and all of your student organization's needs, including large celebrations such as a holiday event or an end-of-semester/year banquet celebration. It is the committee's responsibility to complete all tasks need to achieve their goal.

Student Affairs Staff

Student Affairs staff members work to be proactive in guiding student organizations by providing education, training, and discussions through the programs offered by the office. Student organizations and Student Affairs coincide partners on campus. The staff strives to be facilitators to student organizations through collaboration and assistance in the decision-making process. Our main priority is helping student organizations to achieve their greatest potential, while managing their risk.

SECTION TWO. Rights & Responsibilities of Student Organizations

Student organizations are student groups recognized by the UNT Dallas. While this does not mean that UNT Dallas expressly supports or endorses the views of that particular group, it does mean that each student organization and all its members are representatives of UNT Dallas and its values, policies, and procedures.

Benefits for Student Organizations

Being a registered student organization at The University of North Texas at Dallas has many benefits. Student organizations have the privilege of using university facilities, raising funds, hosting speakers and events, applying for campus awards, opportunities for leadership development, and posting/distributing promotional materials.

Use of University Facilities. Use of university facilities for organization business and functions; including the use of meeting rooms, websites, and electronic support, Use of computers, phone, and fax machine for organizational business, access to student organization mailboxes

Organizational Support. Listing in student organization directory, leadership development opportunities (i.e. retreats, workshops, seminars, speaker series, etc.), participation in student involvement fair, Homecoming, Welcome Week, etc.

Finances

UNT Dallas Student Affairs staff does NOT provide or monitor financial records of student organization. Any organizations looking to open an account for their finances will need to do so through a financial institution (i.e. bank, credit union, etc.) and not through UNT Dallas.

Responsibilities.

Student organizations also have responsibilities on campus. Leaders of these organizations should complete registration to be recognized on campus, attend meetings and leadership seminars, and represent themselves, their organizations(s), and/or the university is the best way possible. It is the responsibility of every student organization and/or its representatives to:

- Attend Student Organization Orientation.
- Complete the Registration Renewal process each year. (Due May 25th)

- Attend Student Organization Presidents' Council Meetings.
- Communicate any questions and/or changes in the organization's representatives, addresses, telephone numbers, emails, or constitution to Coordinator of Activities & Organizations.

SECTION THREE. Advisors of Student Organizations

The Student Organization Advisor serves in a voluntary capacity to the student organization and provides guidance, direction, advice, and continuity to both the members and officers of the organization. This information is priceless!

Eligibility

The Office of Activities & Organizations within Student Affairs requires all registered student organizations to have one (1) faculty/staff member as an advisor. This individual must meet the following requirements:

- Employed full-time at UNT Dallas
- Willing to serve as an advisor to the student organization
- Completed the Advisor Agreement Form

In most cases, your advisor will have more familiarity with the university and its resources. When selecting an advisor, consider the following factors in your decision: the amount of time the advisor can contribute, ensure the advisor has an understanding of your organization, and/or will take the role seriously.

Determining Advisor Responsibilities

The advisor and the student organization should determine the exact role of the advisor when a transition in leadership occurs. This role may vary from organization to organization, based on the organization's needs and goals. The advisor is NOT just a signature in order to receive recognition. Be clear, open about expectations of the Advisor, and periodically offer your advisor feedback. An advisor does not have voting privileges at meetings and may not make any decisions for the organization.

Advisor Responsibilities to the Student Organization.

1. Attend Student Organization Orientation.
2. Serve as a liaison between the university and the organization and add to the sustainability of the organization as members graduate.
3. Assist with maintaining information and records. The advisor can share the history of the organization and explain past decisions to new officers.

www.untdallas.edu/ao/studentorgresources/student-organization-advisor-agreement

SECTION FOUR. Processes & Procedures

Student Organization Registration & Renewal Process

To be a recognized student organization at UNT Dallas, student leaders should register their organizations with Student Affairs. Student leaders can do this in one of two ways.

Forming a New Student Organization.

Sometimes the organizations that currently exist do not fit a student's needs. If you think UNT Dallas is missing a student organization, you are more than welcome to start a new student organization. To start a new student organization, students can follow these steps:

Find three (3) Members and an Advisor. Find at least two other students, plus yourself, to be part of your organization and an advisor, who MUST be a full-time faculty or staff member employed at UNT Dallas and must complete the advisor agreement.

Create Organization Documents. Create a constitution, bylaws, risk management policy, and membership roster (templates are available online). You are more than welcome to schedule an appointment with the Coordinator of Activities & Organizations to ask any questions about the documents.

Complete Registration Application. Submit all updated documents and other requested information to the registration application at this link: www.untDallas.edu/node/5982/new-student-organization-registration

Attend Follow-Up Meeting. Once all your materials have been received, you will receive an email to schedule an appointment with the Coordinator of Activities & Organizations for a follow-up meeting. If there are any additional questions or concerns, this is where any follow-up questions will be asked. If you meet the basic requirements, you will receive an additional packet of information.

Complete Risk Management Training. This state-mandated training can be completed through Student Organization Orientation or an online module <https://goo.gl/forms/PZ1MsUOrobdmdtw83>

For more information visit this link: www.untDallas.edu/ao/organizations/newstudentorgs

Registration Renewal.

Existing student organizations, or organizations that have completed registration before, must renew their status with Student Affairs each year through the Registration Renewal process. A student organization must have at least three (3) members to register. The registration renewal procedure begins at the very last Student Organization President's Council of the spring semester. To renew their status, student organization leaders should follow these steps:

Registration Renewal Application. Submit all required documents to the online registration renewal form, including the organization bylaws/constitution, membership roster, and risk management policies. The application can be found at this link: www.untDallas.edu/ao/organizations/student-organization-executive-briefing

Advisor Agreement. Have their advisor confirm their commitment through the advisor agreement form and complete risk management training each year.

Risk Management Training. This state-mandated training can be completed through Student Organization Orientation or an online module <https://goo.gl/forms/PZ1MsUOrobdmdtw83>

Student Organization Orientation. Student Organization Orientation is hosted every spring semester, where student organization leaders are invited to review processes and procedures, begin preparations for officer transitions, and complete risk management training. All student organizations should send at least one representative to orientation.

For more information visit this link: www.untDallas.edu/ao/organizations/studentorgregistration-renewal

Student Organization Name Changes

Student organizations are allowed to change their name, as long as the Name Change Request Form has been completed and submitted to the office of Student Life. The purpose of this form is to allow student organizations to change their name to be in accordance with its constitution, national or parent organization, etc. The form can be found at this link: www.untdallas.edu/node/5982/student-organization-name-change-request-form

Loss of Registration Status

An organization found in violation of federal, state or local laws, the Code of Student Conduct, any policy listed in the Student Organization Handbook, or applicable University policy, is subject to disciplinary sanctions and may be placed on probation for one or more semesters. If another violation occurs during the probationary period, the organization could be placed on suspension for one year and will lose its status as a registered organization along with the privileges associated with that status. The student organization may not re-apply for registration until the organization is declared by UNT Dallas Student Life to be in good standing with the University.

Student Organizations that are found in violation of policy will be notified by written notice. If the student organization wishes to appeal the violation, then a written appeal must be submitted to UNT Dallas Student Life within three (3) days of receipt of the violation notice.

Student Involvement Fair

The student involvement fair showcases all of the student organizations on campus and ways to get involved. All students are invited to participate and all registered student organizations are allowed to table during this event. Student organizations should register for a table at this link: www.untdallas.edu/node/5982/student-involvement-fair-table-registration-form

Student Organization Funding Requests

This funding request process assists Registered Student Organizations (RSOs) with their events and programs. Funded by the Student Service Fee, applications are coordinated by the Student Government Association and Student Affairs through an online form. The application is available each semester and closed after the deadlines listed below. Each application is processed and collected by Student Affairs and then reviewed by the SGA Funding Request Committee. The process and other application requirements are outlined on the UNT Dallas website and in the procedure via the Student Government Association (SGA). For questions, please email sga@untdallas.edu or visit this link: www.untdallas.edu/ao/organizations/jaggers-den

Registered Student Organizations are allowed to use campus facilities, meeting rooms, and classrooms for their events and meetings. Using the online form, student organizations should submit event requests for campus space and facilities. Requests are processed within 2-4 business days. SECTION FIVE. Student Organization Events

Any event hosted by a student organization must have approval from the office of Student Life through the event request form. All your events should follow the guidelines established for student organizations in this handbook, in University policy, and local/state/federal law.

Accessibility of Event

To ensure that anyone who wants to attend your event is able to, it is important that you make it accessible to all. UNT Dallas Student Life can assist in preparing disability accommodations if requested. When advertising for an event that your student organization is sponsoring/hosting, you should include the following statement on all advertising:

“If you need any accommodations, please contact the <insert name of event coordinator here> at <insert email here>.”

You may also contact the Assistant Director of Disability Services at 972-338-1779. Please allow sufficient time to arrange the accommodation. A student organization may designate a date by which it would like to receive accommodation requests. However, an RSO may not refuse to provide an accommodation because the request was not made by the designated deadline. The RSO with the help of Student Life must try to provide the accommodation.

If an event includes a meal, the registration materials should include the following statement: “If you have special dietary needs, please contact <insert name of event coordinator here> at <insert email here>.”

Co-Sponsorship

UNT Student Life encourages registered student organizations to work collaboratively with other university entities including other student organizations for events and programs. Registered student organizations may co-sponsor events with other registered student, faculty, or staff organizations with university departments.

Films on Campus

Student organizations may show videos and films on campus, with proper registration, licensing, and permission. If the video or film is one that has been distributed by a studio for public release, the student organization must first obtain a license to show that film in a public forum through licensing companies, please see the list below. Student organizations will be charged a fee for licensing to show such films by the company.

Exclusions: If a member of the student organization has created the video or film or permission from the filmmaker has been previously granted to the student organization, it must be presented with the event request form prior to showing the film. Events that show clips or include an education component are also allowed. For example, if a student organization would like to show a movie and tie in a discussion or panel of speakers into their event, they may receive permission from Student Affairs, only if they provide the necessary documentation.

Fundraisers

Student organizations have the right to raise funds to provide funding for purchases not approved for stipend use. Consulting with UNT Dallas Student Affairs staff in the early planning stages of fund raising can save time and effort and will ensure compliance with regulations. UNT Dallas Student Affairs staff is also available to help brainstorm effective fund raising events and techniques.

An event request form must be submitted and approved before a fundraiser can be held. Individuals, officers, and members of organizations are reminded of the established University policies related to the matter of fund raising. Registered student organizations shall be permitted to hold functions on campus and to charge admission for such functions provided that:

- A. The desired facilities are available and the groups requesting such facilities complete the proper forms and do so within the designated time prior to the date of proposed use.
- B. Such groups pay the designated costs for the facilities used, if any.
- C. The contractual arrangements made by such groups clearly show that the University is not sponsoring the event.

Restrictions:

Some fundraisers and/or fundraising practices are restricted at UNT Dallas due to university, federal, local, and/or state policies. Please see the list below:

- Raffles. Selling raffle tickets on university property is prohibited, due to its association with gambling. A raffle is defined as the award of one or more prizes by chance at a single occasion among a single pool or group of persons who have paid or promised a thing of value for a ticket that represents a chance to win a prize.” Qualified organizations are defined by the Texas Occupations Code § 2002. The Charitable Raffle Enabling Act states that “qualified organizations’ may hold up to two raffles per calendar year, with certain specified restrictions. An RSO may be qualified when “it has existed for at least three preceding years and is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c), Internal Revenue Code; does not distribute any of its income to its members, officers or governing body; does not devote a substantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation; and does not participate in any political campaign.” This information and restrictions on prizes and advertising can be found at www.oag.state.tx.us/consumer/raffle.shtml
Only raffles held in accordance with the Charitable Raffle Enabling Act are authorized raffles. Any unauthorized raffle is considered gambling under the Texas Penal Code. Violations by employees or students are subject to disciplinary action.
- Solicitation. Soliciting businesses and organizations outside of the campus community is permitted under certain circumstances, but only with express permission from UNT Dallas Student Life. If a student group wishes to conduct any business with non-university organization for soliciting donations for a fundraiser or charitable event, they must first receive permission from UNT DALLAS STUDENT LIFE before any contact is made. A completed Event Request Form is required prior to the initiation of the sales/solicitation event. Student organizations are required to adhere to all UNT Dallas Student Life policies regarding sales and fund raising.
- Food Sales. Often fundraiser ideas may involve the sale or distribution of food. Whatever the event, if food is involved student organizations must follow specific guidelines to ensure that no one consuming the food provided by their group is at risk of illness or disease. If outside parties/vendors will be utilized for foodservice in an event, RSOs are responsible for making sure that all vendors (and campus facilities if pertinent) meet these guidelines. Risk Management for the UNT System has assessed the risk associated with campus student organizations and University events holding Bake Sales to raise funds and has determined that Bake Sales will be allowed with the following guidelines:
 - The Bake Sale is to be restricted to baked goods and candy that are “non-perishable”. Examples of food NOT allowed would be any pies that require refrigeration. Pies that have meringues or are made of custard, cream or pudding are NOT allowed. No cakes with Whipped Cream or Cream Cheese based frosting. The basic rule is if it must be refrigerated it CANNOT be sold on campus at a Bake Sale.

- All products must be from an “approved” source. An approved source would be pre-packaged items purchased from a retail establishment that is approved to bake and/or sale baked goods. Another approved source would be baked goods prepared in a UNT Dallas kitchen, supervised by UNT Dallas dining service personnel. Food prepared in a private home is considered to be from an “unapproved” source and may not be sold.
- The goods sold at the Bake Sale will be sealed and the product not left open to the elements for possible contamination by flying birds, dust, debris etc.
- The product will be served with single service disposable utensils and plates. Food utensils such as forks, knives and spoons must be individually factory sealed. Single serving portions of product will be pre-portioned and wrapped prior to the beginning of the sale.
- Tables on which the product will be displayed will be washed and sanitized prior to service and all persons serving must wash their hands prior to serving customers and any time their hands have become contaminated during the sale.
- If drinks are to be served at the event only canned or plastic bottled drinks are allowed. The drinks can be held on ice in a container but the ice must be used ONLY for keeping the drinks cold. NO ice for human consumption is allowed.
- Any Bake Sale event could be subject to an inspection by Risk Management Services. The Inspector reserves the right to limit what product can be sold on campus if he/she deems that product unsuitable or unsafe for human consumption.

Guest Speakers

Student organizations may invite non-university personnel to speak at events sponsored by their organization, but must complete an event request form before an invitation is extended to the guest. Any guest speaking fees will be incurred by the RSO unless an agreement has been made with a division/department on campus to sponsor said speaker.

Special considerations may be required for VIP, Dignitary, and Special Guests visits to the campus, such as venue selection, program development and security, as well as involvement of the University administration. As a result, the University of North Texas at Dallas has adopted the following procedures:

- For the purpose of this procedure, VIP, Dignitary, and Special Guests shall include heads of state, heads of governments, ranking officials with foreign governments, U.S. and State Cabinet, Congressional or Senate members, as well as those persons requiring or requesting special protection services, (i.e. U.S. State Department, Secret Service, F.B.I., or other policing agencies). This procedure shall also apply to other Special Guests such as but not limited to high profile, controversial, or popular persons, such as celebrities, individuals running for office, controversial speakers, or those whose safety and security is paramount.
- All students or student organizations inviting VIPs, Dignitaries, and Special Guests must notify UNT Dallas Student Life prior to invitation. UNT Dallas Student Life will coordinate dignitary visits with the Offices of the President, Marketing and Communications, University Advancement, and UNT Dallas Police Department.
- The inviting student or organization (requestor) shall be liable for all charges incurred on their behalf, including charges for special equipment, staff and security personnel, and costs of alterations and/or modifications to the University venues for safety and security of both the VIP, Dignitary, Special Guest, and the public or campus population during such visits.
- Outside or off-campus security must contact and coordinate with the UNTD Police Department, UNT Dallas Student Life, and when necessary Marketing and Communications and University Advancement on all VIP, Dignitary, or Special Guest visits to the campus.

Potluck & Other Events with Food

Risk Management for the UNT System has assessed the risk associated with UNT Dallas departments and organizations holding pot luck meals to celebrate holidays and other special occasions and has determined that pot luck meals will be allowed with the following guidelines:

1. Following four simple steps will help to keep food safe: (1) Clean – Wash hands and surfaces often; (2) Separate – Don't cross contaminate; (3) Cook – Cook to proper temperatures; (4) Chill - Refrigerate promptly.
2. Select a person who is knowledgeable of food handling and safety guidelines to be in charge of the potluck. The person-in-charge should provide instructions for safe food handling and oversee the preparation, service and cleanup of the event.
3. For outdoor events, make sure there is a source of clean water. If none is available at the site, bring water, as well as soap and paper towels for cleaning of hands.
4. If open flame cooking a fire extinguisher must be on hand and conveniently accessible.
5. Never partially cook food for finishing later because you increase the risk of bacterial growth on the food. Bacteria are killed when foods reach a safe minimum internal temperature. Call the RMS Health and Food Safety Office (HFSO) for information on safe internal temperatures.
6. Bacteria multiply rapidly between 40°F and 135°F. To keep food out of this “danger zone”, keep cold food in the refrigerator or in coolers and keep hot food in the oven, slow cookers, or in heated chafing dishes.
7. A microwave oven can be used to prepare food, but care must be taken to make sure food reaches a safe temperature throughout. Stir or rotate food midway through the microwave time to eliminate cold spots. Partial cooking may be done in the microwave only if the food is to finish cooking immediately, either on the range, grill, or in a conventional oven.
8. Leftovers and foods that have been cooked ahead and cooled should be reheated to at least 165°F. Reheat sauces, soups, and gravies to a boil. Reheating leftovers in slow cookers is not recommended because foods may stay in the “danger zone” too long.
9. Never leave food in the “danger zone” over two hours; one hour in temperatures above 90°F. Immediately refrigerate or freeze leftovers. Discard any food left out at room temperature for more than two hours. When in doubt – throw it out!
10. Ice used for human consumption must be stored separately from ice used to refrigerate food or drinks.

Food Service. Guidelines for operating an event with temporary food service at UNT Dallas shall be as follows:

1. Only approved food products will be permitted. Home preparation or the storage of food in the home is not allowed. All condiments including relish, catsup, etc., available for customers must be single-service packets or be dispensed from sanitary dispensers. Must provide single service plates & utensils.
2. All perishable food products must be maintained under proper temperature control: hot foods maintained at 135°F or above and cold foods maintained 41°F or below. Thermometer (0°F to 220°F) to check temperature is required.
3. Food shall be protected at all times. Open, unprotected displays of food products will not be allowed. All food/food supplies shall be 6” off floor/ground. Booths shall be enclosed or have adequate floor and overhead covering.
4. Ice used for human consumption must be stored separately from ice used to refrigerate drink bottles or cans and must be dispensed by food handlers ONLY. NO SELF SERVICE OF ICE!
5. All employees and/or volunteers- shall:
 - a. Wear clean clothes and effective hair restraints
 - b. Wash hands with soap and water prior to beginning work, after smoking, eating, or drinking, and after using the restroom
 - c. Use disposable gloves or utensils when handling food products
 - d. Not smoke or use tobacco products while on UNT Dallas property, except in locations permitted in university policy.
6. Have three containers available for the following uses of water:

- a. Soapy water for washing
- b. Rinse in clear water
- c. Water with bleach to sanitize (one cap full of bleach to one gallon of water)
7. Have liquid hand soap, paper towels, and a five-gallon container with spigot, filled with water for hand washing.
8. All trash and garbage must be contained in leak proof, non-absorbent containers lined with plastic bags and covered with lids.
9. Toxic items shall be stored away from food and food supplies.
10. If open flame cooking a fire extinguisher must be on hand and conveniently accessible.

Philanthropy

According to the Social Change Model of Leadership Development, “service is a powerful vehicle for developing students’ leadership skills.” Additionally, as stated in the University’s Vision 2020 Strategic Plan, UNT Dallas is committed to increasing student participation in co-curricular activities outside of the classroom in activities such as: philanthropic service, incorporating active service, fundraising, and event planning. In keeping with the University’s commitment to civic engagement, each student organization is required to complete at least 10 hours of service to a philanthropic cause each semester. The philanthropic cause or activity is left to the discretion of the student organization, but must be approved by that group’s Advisor. Philanthropic work will be reported to UNT Dallas Student Life in the executive briefing submitted during the Registration Renewal application. An example of the Service Hour report form is outlined in the table below:

Community Service Hour Report Form

Date of event	Name of Service project	Who Benefited?	How long was the event? (i.e. 12PM-5PM = 5 hours)	# of members participated	Total # of hours completed (i.e. 5 hours x 2 members = 10 hours total)
Example: 4/20/2018	#UNTDServes Campus Beatification Project	UNT Dallas	9AM-12PM (3 hours)	8	24

Special Events

Sometimes student organizations may host events that are considered high-risk for a variety of factors, including number of expected attendees, charging admission, inviting minors, requiring food service, scheduled outside of regular building/office hours, requires IT services, guest speakers, off-campus guests, etc. These events must be cleared by the office of Student Affairs, Campus Police, and/or Office of University of Advancement.

Scheduling and Requesting Space. Special Events must be coordinated at least 6 weeks in advance through the Event Request Form. Some events should be scheduled with enough time to meet with the necessary staff and administration on campus to address certain risk factors of your event.

Special Events Meeting(s). The event coordinator may need to meet with several individuals, depending upon the event. Room requests that are identified as special events will be emailed and instructed to schedule a meeting with the Coordinator of Activities & Organizations to go over any additional steps or information that may be requested, depending on the event. This could include identifying risks and possible ways to reduce risk, scheduling an additional meeting with campus police, requesting catering, etc. An additional meeting with the UNTD Risk Management Office may also be requested.

Security & Campus Police. Police are required at some special events. An additional meeting with the UNT Dallas Police Department may also be required. This meeting should be completed at least 4 weeks prior to your event. Payment arrangements should be made with the UNT Dallas Police Department.

Student Travel

Student organizations travel for many reasons, including regional and/or national retreats, conferences, competitions, and social events. Traveling is a great way for an organization to receive training and leadership development, accomplish its goals, and it serves as a valuable resource. However, travel is a high-risk activity. With proper risk management, student organizations can reduce that risk. This applies to the following forms of travel:

- Any travel for a program, event, or trip that is 25 miles or more away from the UNT Dallas campus
- Required by the student organization; or funded by and requires use of a vehicle owned or leased by the university

If the travel meets the criteria of the policy, an org must obtain written approval for the travel from its UNT Dallas faculty/staff advisor or the department head responsible for funding or organizing the travel at least 2 weeks before the date of the event or activity. It must be registered with and submitted to the Student Affairs through the Student Travel Forms.

Vendors

Student organizations may want to order t-shirts for their events, graduation stoles for their seniors, or promotional materials to advertise their organization. These materials can be obtained from companies and organizations that provide these services. When working with vendors, it's important to obtain quotes from different companies as a good business practice. Allow ample time to complete the process of obtaining bids and if necessary seek permission from UNT Dallas Student Life to use an outside vendor. Student organizations can contact the vendors for quotes and should notify them of their affiliation with UNT Dallas.

Preferred Vendors: UNT Dallas prefers that student organizations use Historically Underutilized Businesses (HUBs, HUB Vendors, etc.) when purchasing promotional items, t-shirts, awards, etc. A HUB Vendor is a vendor that is at least 51% owned by an Asian Pacific American, Black American, Hispanic American, Native American and/or American woman; is an entity with its principal place of business in Texas, and; has an owner residing in Texas with a proportionate interest that actively participates in the control, operations and management of the entity's affairs.

In regards to purchasing catering and food, if a student organization wishes to have food service at an event, they must first obtain a quote from the campus vendor: ECI Management Group (972) 338-1991
