

Counseling Program Writing Sample

Addressing your aspirations related to the field of counseling, please submit a one-page essay addressing the following:

- One or more significant life event(s) that contributed to the development of these aspirations; the single greatest personal asset that will serve you in realizing your aspirations and the one personal characteristic or quality that you most need to modify, improve, or change in or to realize your aspirations; activities demonstrating your commitment to the field of counseling; evidence if you have fluency in both English and another language; other information you think will be helpful in evaluating your potential for success in the program and as a counselor.