

Creative Writing:
Books
Poetry
Plays
Screenplays
Scripts
Greeting Cards
Lyrics/Jingle Writing

Journalism:
Writing/Reporting/Editing

Technical Writing: Science and Medical Writing

Freelance Writing

WRITING & EDITING

Teaching Administration
Student Affairs Academic Advising
Information/Library Science
Non-Classroom Teaching
Tutoring
English as a Second Language

EDUCATION

Editing Advertising
Sales Circulation Production
Publicity Marketing
Promotion Administration

PUBLISHING

Account Coordination/Management

Writing/Editing

Media Relations Research

Program Administration

PUBLIC RELATIONS

Creative Services:
Copy Writing Art Direction
Account Management
Sales Media
Account Planning
Production

ADVERTISING

Management Sales

Marketing Human Resources

Insurance: Claims/Underwriting

Training/Development Customer Service

BUSINESS

Domestic and International Advocacy
Humanitarian Services
Volunteer Coordination
Program Administration
Grant Writing Policy Development
Fundraising/Development

ADVOCACY

LAW

Law Assistance
Prosecution Defense
Contractual Corporate Mediation
Campaign Management Lobbying
Nonprofit or Public Interest
Government Relations
Special Interest Advocacy

ENGLISH

All of the above listed are careers one may pursue with a History degree. Jobs may require additional training, education, or certification.