

Student Financial Obligation Fact Sheet (8/15/19)

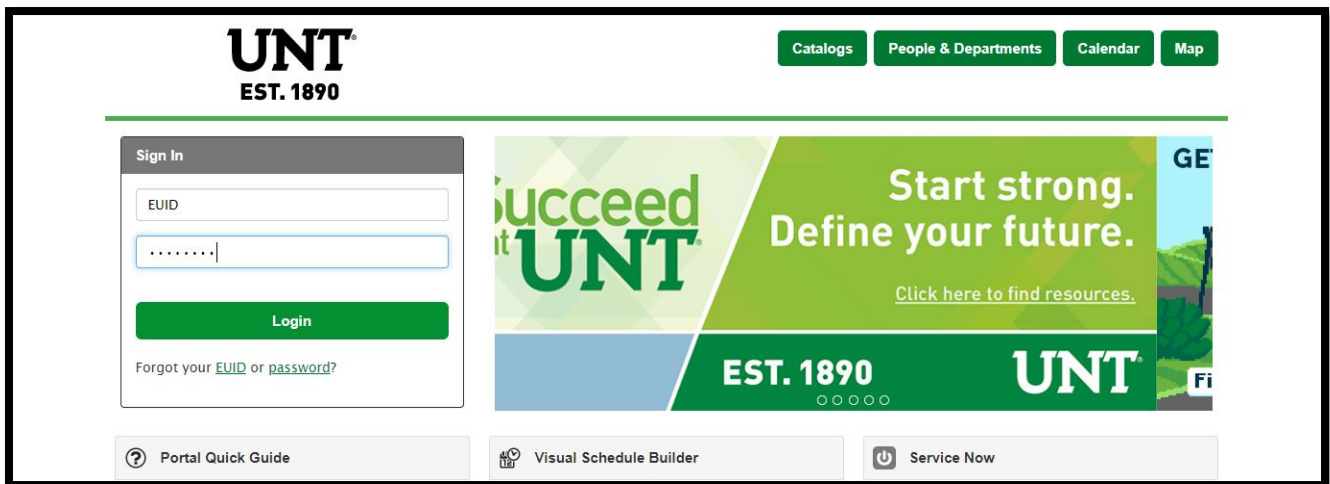

What is the Student Financial Obligation?

When you initially register as a student at the University of North Texas, you establish a student account with the University through Student Financial Services. As part of establishing a student account, all students are required to review and complete the Student Financial Obligation. The Student Financial Obligation is a statement of the terms and conditions of the student account.

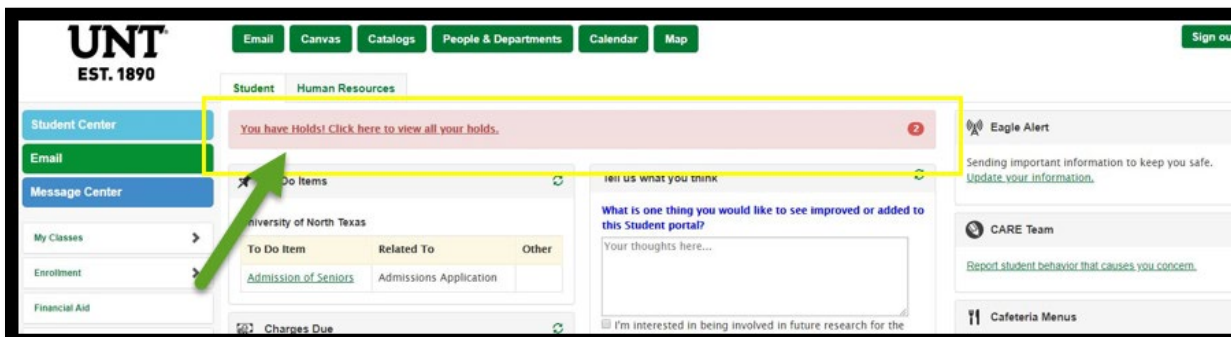

How do students complete the Student Financial Obligation in MyUNT?

The Student Financial Obligation is presented to a student as a hold on their account within MyUNT (my.unt.edu). The steps below outline the process for completing the Student Financial Obligation.

Step 1: Log into your MyUNT account with your EUID username and password.

Step 2: Click the red action message showing the number of holds on your account.

Financial Terms and Conditions of Attendance

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING FINANCIAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ATTENDANCE

Registering for classes through this website represents my electronic signature and agreement to be bound by these Financial Terms and Conditions of Attendance, including my agreement to be financially responsible to University of North Texas ("University") for payment of all tuition, fees, any applicable room and board charges, and related costs that are added to my student account. I further agree to pay any additional fees, fines, or penalties that are added to my student account which are related to my attendance at the University.

AGREEMENT TO ACCEPT FINANCIAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ATTENDANCE

General Provisions

1. My student account reflects a financial obligation I owe the University for educational services and the associated costs of attendance.
2. The University is a state agency and an institution of higher education. As such, all or a portion of my student account is considered to be an educational loan pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 523(a) and offered for the sole purpose of financing an education. My student account may not be dischargeable in bankruptcy proceedings.
3. This agreement will be in effect until I have fulfilled all financial obligations to the University and the University has terminated this agreement.
4. I authorize the University and its agents, representatives, attorneys, and contractors (including collection agencies) to contact me through my current or any future mobile phone, home phone, and email, including by way of text message and automated message calls, for purposes of collecting any portion of my student financial obligation which is delinquent.

Step 5: Click "Confirm" at the end of the page once you have read through the information and your hold will be removed automatically.

my 1098-T statement online through my Student Center. I will continue to receive an electronic copy unless I revoke my consent in writing with Student Financial Services Office. Additional information concerning the 1098-T is available online at <https://sfs.unt.edu/tax-reporting>.

I confirm that I have read and agree to the above information.
