

Dallin Westwood

Dallin Westwood founded Upstream Tax Consulting, LLC in 2013.

About The Instructor

Mr. Westwood graduated from Brigham Young University receiving Bachelor of Science in Accounting and a Masters of Accountancy-Tax. He is a Certified Public Accountant. In addition, he is a Certified Member of the Institute (CMI) of the Institute for Professionals in Taxation.

Professional Background

Upstream Tax Consulting's practice is focused on exploration and production, midstream, and oilfield service companies. It provides specialized services including audit defense, overpayment review, training, tax research, and tax planning.

Prior to founding Upstream Tax Consulting, Mr. Westwood was Director of Sales Tax Services at Duff & Phelps. He joined Duff & Phelps when they acquired Growth Capital Partners in July 2011. He joined Growth Capital Partners as Managing Director of Tax Recovery in 2009.

Prior to joining Growth Capital Partners, Mr. Westwood was a Director and Oil and Gas practice leader for 11 years for one of the leading tax services firms in North America. He was responsible for providing multi-jurisdictional state and local tax consulting services to clients in the upstream and midstream oil and gas industry. His clients included many of the largest oil and gas companies in the United States. The consulting services provided included audit defense, managed audit, overpayment review and tax planning.

Mr. Westwood also spent 11 years as a Tax Manager for the domestic Exploration and Production division of Hess Corporation. He was responsible for all aspects of income tax and sales tax compliance, research and audit defense.