

Title IX Conduct Process Flow Chart

For allegations of sexual assault

The Dean of Students Representative who holds the Conference is a different person than the Investigator.

Complainant or Respondent can request review by the VPED. If no request is submitted the findings become final.

Complainant or Respondent can request review by the Committee if the decision results in Level III Conduct Probation, Suspension, or Expulsion. If no request is submitted the sanctions and findings become final.

Complainant, Respondent, or Dean of Students Representative can request review by the Committee if the decision results in Level III Conduct Probation, Suspension, or Expulsion. If no request is submitted the sanctions and findings become final.

This flowchart is intended to provide a summary overview of the process. For complete steps and guidelines please refer to the Code of Student Conduct, notices you have been sent with specific deadlines, and other forms in the student packet.