

About Our Instructors

Industry/Executive Education

Arvind Mallik

Arvind Mallik is a founding Partner of an investment fund and is serving as a Business Case / Valuation Modeler for PDI.

About The Instructor

This UC Berkeley and MIT graduate has worked in several upper management roles across numerous industries throughout his career. He has served as a Strategic Advisor to $15B client's President and Executive VPs on their key financial challenges.

Professional Background

Arvind is a founding Partner of KMF Investments, a deep-value based investment partnership. Prior to founding the Fund, Mr. Mallik was a Senior Manager in the Strategy practice of Accenture LLP where he helped global companies formulate and execute strategies to enter new market segments, develop innovative new services and solutions, and reduce their operating costs. He has advised clients in navigating complex change initiatives, including mergers & acquisitions, and business process outsourcing. He brings a strong background in value analysis and improving returns to shareholders.

Educational Background

Mr. Mallik obtained a BS in Chemical Engineering and BS in Bioengineering from UC Berkeley, and an MS in Chemical Engineering from MIT. He graduated with highest honors from both institutions.