

UNT Homecoming Royalty Winner Focuses Impact Project on International Students

For international students, U.S. college traditions and the rules of sports can be confusing, so UNT Homecoming Royalty Ashley Pickle created a fun and informative event that taught them about the university and one of America's most popular sports—basketball.

DSA Diversity Council Update

The DSA Diversity Council has now met four times and great work is underway.

In addition to committee members continuing to get to know more about each other, we spent time brainstorming language that could potentially be added as a performance evaluation competency; topics to cover within the division to continue the diversity training we started this summer through our retreat; and how to best include diversity training as part of our DSA New Employee Orientation.

More to come on all of these!

New DSA Employee Group Photo

At the upcoming division meeting on Jan. 30, we will be recognizing all new employees who joined the DSA last year (Jan. 2018 through this Jan. 2019).

If you joined the DSA during that time, then we invite you to participate in a group photo that will take place on Thursday, Jan. 24, at 3 p.m. on the front steps of Hurley (rain site will be the inside staircase).

UNT Calendar Reminder

Please continue to submit your events to the UNT Calendar and select an appropriate Event Category so that students can easily find what they need. The categories that pertain to the DSA include:

- Career and Leadership (events by the Career Center and Center for Leadership and Service)
- Dining (events by Dining Services)

- Discovery Park (events taking place at Discovery Park)
- Engagement and Support (events by the Dean of Students Office, Off-Campus Student Services, Office of Disability Access, Student Money Management Center, Student Legal Services, Student Veteran Services)
- Exhibits (events by the Fine Arts Series, UNT on the Square)
- Governing Bodies (events by the SGA)
- Student Life (events by the Distinguished Lecture Series, Greek Life, Housing, Office of Spiritual Life, Rec Sports, Student Activities, We Mean Green Fund)
- Student Organizations (events by student organizations)
- Union Events (events by the Union)
- Volunteering (events by the Center for Leadership and Service)
- Wellbeing and Safety (events by the Student Health and Wellness Center, Counseling and Testing Services, Dean of Students Office)

You can select more than one category if your event covers multiple areas. The UNT Calendar is a popular resource for students and feeds into the UNT app, so please continue to utilize it for all of your student events.

ADA Compliance Reminder

In order to make sure that we are ADA compliant, all UNT produced videos should include closed captioning. In addition, please consult this DSA page and URCM page for information about accessibility for our websites. Contact dsaweb@unt.edu if you have any questions.
