UNT Unveils the New S.U.R.E. Center

The UNT Substance Abuse Resource Center (SARC) is now the Substance Use Resource and Education \(S.U.R.E.\) Center. This change will help create a more inviting initial approach for students seeking help or support from UNT services and will help remove the negative stigma behind students seeking assistance.

Propose a Project to the We Mean Green Fund Today

All “green” project idea proposals must be submitted to the We Mean Green Fund Committee by the end of day today, March 1, 2019, to be considered for funding.

The We Mean Green Fund empowers UNT students, faculty and staff to improve our institution through campus projects that embody passion and spirit for environmental sustainability.

Email WMGF Project Coordinator Emily.Bilcik@unt.edu for the formal proposal template and questions. Visit wmgf.unt.edu for more information about the We Mean Green Fund.

Call for Students to Spotlight

The DSA Marketing and Communications department is seeking suggestions for great students to spotlight on the DSA website and in marketing materials. Please send the students' names and contact info. (along with why you think they would make great student spotlights) to Ray Willhoft.

Call for DSA Awards Nominations

It's time to start submitting nominations for the Division of Student Affairs Awards. You can read about all the awards we are offering this year here.

You can submit your nominations through the nomination form, and the deadline for nominations is April 4 at 5 p.m.

We will recognize nominees and winners on Thursday, May 9, from 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. at the DSA Awards Luncheon.

UNT Traditions

Official Class Ring

Unique to the University of North Texas, the official class ring portrays our Eagle mascot, university seal and McConnell Tower. The two clock faces show different times — one o'clock for the internationally recognized One O'Clock Lab Band, and seven o'clock noting the curfew time for students in the early days of the institution.

Click here for more UNT Traditions, which will be spotlighted each week.
