Join Us for First Flight Week August 19 – 26

First Flight is UNT's official welcome program for all incoming freshmen and transfer students and is designed to help new students begin their college experience on the right foot. Every year, we rely on the support of our amazing faculty and staff to make this program a success. Here are the great ways faculty and staff can get involved with First Flight. We've made some changes to the First Flight schedule this year. See the new schedule and learn more about First Flight here.

First Flight Bucket Programs

Students will select seven First Flight bucket programs to attend throughout First Flight. We need at least 400 programs to fill the following program buckets:

- My Prep: Provide students with a sense of preparedness for their first year of college.
- My Life: Begin to build a sense of community.
- My Health and Wellness: Begin to formulate beneficial physical and mental lifelong habits.
- My Future: Begin to make plans for the future.

Please use this form to submit your First Flight bucket programs.

University 101 Facilitators

As a component of First Flight Week, all new freshmen will be required to participate in a University 101 session with their small group which teaches them how to be successful in college. We are currently seeking 100 – 180 faculty and staff volunteers to lead these sessions. Volunteers who have never facilitated a University 101 session will need to attend a one-hour training session. Training sessions will be offered in person from May - August and online. University 101 Sessions are about two hours long and will be held:

- Monday August 20: 9 – 11a.m.
- Monday August 20: 1 – 3p.m.
- Tuesday August 21: 9 – 11a.m.

Please use this form to sign up to be a University 101 facilitator.
