

Social Security Letter Request

- This form is used to request a letter from ISSS verifying your immigration status and current enrollment at UNT or IELI.
- Once this letter has been issued, take this letter, along with your employer letter and all your immigration documents to the Social Security Administration Office.
- You may return to pick up your letter 3 business days after you submit the request. (If you are a new student this semester, you must wait until after the 12th class day to pick up your letter.)
