

Department Organizational Chart | Fall 2019

Our mission is to be an evolving office for students and their families that facilitates the successful transition into the UNT community by: helping them connect to the University, creating opportunities, and building relationships.