Acquisitions John Adams Building Library of Congress Photo credit: Marlena River

Bibliographic Services

for Federal Assisted

Books

Foreign Language

Information Retrieval

Serials

- 1. Purchase the best products and services at the lowest prices. Reduce costs — as much as 20 percent or more!
- 2. Stretch your library service budgets and anticipate your needs. Tap into the expertise of Library of Congress professionals, working with its librarians, contracting officers, financial managers, and customer service representatives.
- 3. Get expert advice from senior level librarians to stay abreast of issues and developments in federal information management, products, and services.
- 4. Access contract professionals who have your library mission in mind. Manage orders and invoices with FEDLINK's pre-negotiated contracts for the best prices.
- 5. Comply with all federal acquisition regulations. Have FEDLINK compete, evaluate, negotiate and award contracts for products and services with negotiated procurements and indefinite-quantity/indefinite-delivery (IDIQ) contracts.
- 6. Track your contracts, purchases, and invoices from start to finish.
- 7. Meet federal accounting regulations. FEDLINK is a revolving fund (Section 103 of P.L. 106-481 (2 U.S.C. 182c)) and follows Government Accountability Office, Office of Management, Budget, and Department of the Treasury procedures.

For more information, contact the FEDLINK Fiscal Hotline at (202) 707-4900 Or visit us at http://www.loc.gov/flicc.