

ONAP Duplication of Benefits Sources Table: The table below list some of the federal resources from which Tribes and Tribal organizations may be eligible to receive to prepare, prevent and respond to COVID-19. To find out more information on each program, click on the program name below.

Agency	Program	Support Function	Amount Available	Assistance Type	Eligible Recipient	Purpose and Eligible Activities
Department of Commerce	Tribal subsistence, commercial, and charter fisheries	Economic Development	$300 million	TBD	Tribes, persons, fishing communities, aquaculture businesses	Interstate marine fisheries commissions, Puerto Rico, and U.S. Virgin Islands will disburse funds to address coronavirus-related losses. Address economic revenue losses and negative impacts, cultural, or ceremonial fisheries
Department of Education	Education Stabilization Fund - BIE Schools	Education	$153.8 million	program delivery	Tribes	Support K-12 and higher education systems granted to states and tribal governments.
Department of Education	Education Stabilization Fund - TCUs	Education	$105 million	program delivery	Tribes	Support K-12 and higher education systems granted to states and tribal governments.
Department of Housing and Urban Development	Indian Community Development Block Grant	Housing, Economic Development	$100 million	grant	Tribes, TDHEs, Tribal organizations	Prevent, prepare for, and respond to coronavirus, including to maintain normal operations and fund eligible affordable housing activities under ICDBG Program
Department of Housing and Urban Development	Indian Housing Block Grant	Housing	$200 million	grant	Tribes, TDHEs	Prevent, prepare for, and respond to coronavirus, including to maintain normal operations and fund eligible affordable housing activities under NAHASDA during the period that the program is impacted
Department of Housing and Urban Development and Veterans Affairs	Tribal Housing and Urban Development-Veterans Affairs Supportive Housing (HUD-VASH) program	Housing	$5.2 million	grant	Tribes, TDHEs	Clinical care and case management through VA Medical Centers. Permanent housing, indefinite, as long as needed.

This table is intended to assist Tribes, TDHE, and Tribal organizations with finding information on available Federal resources. All determinations regarding program eligibility will be made by the appropriate Federal agency responsible for administering each program listed in this table. Updated on September 4, 2020.

Agency	Program	Support Function	Amount Available	Assistance Type	Eligible Recipient	Purpose and Eligible Activities
Department of Interior - Bureau of Indian Affairs	Public Safety and Law Enforcement	Health Services, Safety	$453 million	TBD	Tribes	Address public safety and justice related to COVID-19 on tribal lands including executive direction to carry out deep cleaning of facilities, purchase of personal protective equipment, purchase of information technology to improve teleworking capability, welfare assistance and social services programs including assistance to individuals, and assistance to tribal governments, including tribal governments who participate in the "Small and Needy" program
Department of Interior - Bureau of Indian Education and Tribal Colleges and Universities	Operation of Indian Education Programs	Education	$69 million for BIE of which $20 million for TCUs	program delivery	Tribes	Prevent, prepare for, and respond to coronavirus, including funding for tribal colleges and universities, salaries, transportation, and information technology
Department of Interior - Bureau of Reclamation	Water and Related Resources	Health and Safety	$12 million	TBD	Tribes	Prevent, prepare for, and respond to coronavirus. For an emergency requirement pursuant to section 251(b)(2)(A).
Department of Justice - Office of Justice Program	State and Local Law Enforcement Assistance	Health Services, Safety	$850 million	program delivery	Tribes	Prevent, prepare for and respond to coronavirus
Department of Labor	Dislocated Worker Grants	Workforce Development	$345 million	grant	Tribes, States and local workforce programs	Grants for temporary employment and training services, including humanitarian assistance, clean-up and mitigation associated with the virus, and job training for industries still hiring during the health emergency.
Department of Treasury	Coronavirus Relief Fund	Economic Development	$8 billion	grant	Tribes	Offset expenditures incurred due to the COVID-19 outbreak

This table is intended to assist Tribes, TDHE, and Tribal organizations with finding information on available Federal resources. All determinations regarding program eligibility will be made by the appropriate Federal agency responsible for administering each program listed in this table. Updated on September 4, 2020.

Agency	Program	Support Function	Amount Available	Assistance Type	Eligible Recipient	Purpose and Eligible Activities
Department of Treasury	Exchange Stabilization Fund-Economic Stabilization Program Account	Economic Development	$425 billion	Loan	Large businesses and municipalities	Loans, loan guarantees, and investments in support of the Federal Reserve's lending facilities to eligible businesses, states, and municipalities
Department of Treasury	Unemployment Insurance Provisions	Unemployment	$250 billion			For those who need extra assistance the bill provides an additional 13 weeks of benefits beyond what states typically allow
Economic Development Administration	Supplemental Economic Adjustment Assistance (EAA)	Economic Development	$1.5 billion	grant- may require match	Indian tribes or a consortium of Indian tribes	The CARES Act provides $1.5 billion in disaster economic recovery funding for the EAA program. Eligible activities include construction and non-construction activities (e.g., infrastructure, design and engineering, technical assistance, economic recovery strategies, and capitalization or re-capitalization of Revolving Loan Funds).
FEMA	Disaster Relief Fund	Emergency Protective Measures	$45 billion	TBD	Tribes	$45 billion to remain available until expended. Through the DRF, FEMA can fund authorized Federal disaster support activities as well as eligible State, territorial, tribal, and local actions, such as: (1) the repair and restoration of qualifying disaster-damaged public infrastructure; (2) hazard mitigation initiatives; (3) financial assistance to eligible disaster survivors.
FEMA	Emergency Food and Shelter Programs	Food	FY 19 and 20 funding approx. $245 million and CARES Act $200m	grant	County run boards - tribes must apply to county	Funds used for utility bills, pantries, mass feeding, prevent homelessness.

This table is intended to assist Tribes, TDHE, and Tribal organizations with finding information on available Federal resources. All determinations regarding program eligibility will be made by the appropriate Federal agency responsible for administering each program listed in this table. Updated on September 4, 2020.

Agency	Program	Support Function	Amount Available	Assistance Type	Eligible Recipient	Purpose and Eligible Activities
FEMA	Emergency Management Performance Grant Program - COVID-19 Supplemental	Health	$100 million	grant	Tribes, States, local governments	Planning and operational readiness for COVID-19 preparedness and response, as well as the development of tools and strategies for prevention, preparedness, and response, and ensure ongoing communication and coordination.
FEMA	Public Assistance- Emergency Work/Emergency Protective Measures - Category B	Emergency Protective Measures		grant - requires 25% local match	Tribes, States, local governments	Emergency protective measures are activities conducted to address immediate threats to life, public health, and safety.
Health and Human Services	Community Living Allocation	Food	$250 million		Tribes - allocations here	$20 million for nutrition and related services for Native American Programs to help tribes and tribal organizations provide meals and supportive services directly to Native American
Health and Human Services	Native Inclusion of Education and Training Relating to Geriatrics (Section 753)	Education	$40.7 million	grant	Tribes	Support the training of health care professionals who treat elderly Native Americans
HHS – Administration for Children and Families	Family Violence Prevention and Services	Shelter and Domestic Violence Services	$175 million FY20 and $45 million CARES	grant	Tribes	Provision of emergency shelter and other non-shelter support services, such as victim advocacy, crisis counseling, safety planning, support groups, information and referrals, legal aid, and housing assistance to address domestic violence and dating violence
HHS – Administration for Children and Families	Head Start	Education, Health, Food	$9.8 billion	grant	Tribes	Early learning/school readiness; health (health and development screenings, nutritious meals, oral health and mental health support; family referrals to medical, dental, and mental health services); family well-being (housing stability, continued education, and financial security)

This table is intended to assist Tribes, TDHE, and Tribal organizations with finding information on available Federal resources. All determinations regarding program eligibility will be made by the appropriate Federal agency responsible for administering each program listed in this table. Updated on September 4, 2020.

Agency	Program	Support Function	Amount Available	Assistance Type	Eligible Recipient	Purpose and Eligible Activities
HHS – Administration for Children and Families	Indian Child Care Development Block Grant	Education	$7-96 million	grant	Tribes	Indian childcare programs for low-income families to defray costs of COVID response including continued payments to childcare providers during center closures to provide emergency childcare for emergency health care workers, emergency responders and other "front line" workers.
HHS- Administration for Children and Families	Low-Income Home Energy Assistance	Safety, Utilities	$900 million	TBD	Tribal families	Prevent, prepare for, or respond to coronavirus, for making payments under LIHEAP. Aids low-income households with heating and cooling energy costs, bill payment assistance, energy crisis assistance, weatherization, and energy-related home repairs.
HHS – Administration for Children and Families	TANF	Individual	$200 million		Tribes	Needy families with children or families expecting a child. TANF is a very flexible program that can fund a wide range of services and benefits. Because many COVID-19-affected families could have multiple needs tribes may consider expanding their services and broadening their eligibility criteria.
HHS – Administration for Community Living	Nutrition and Related Services for Native American Programs under Title VI of the Older Americans Act	Food, Health Services	$20 million	Grant	Tribes	Fund home delivered meals; care services in the home; respite care and other support to families and caregivers; information about and referral to supports; and more. Tribes and tribal organizations can provide meals and supportive services directly to Native American elders.
HHS – Administration for Community Living	Families First Coronavirus Response Act (2020) Supplemental Funding	Food	$10 million	Grant	Tribes	Home delivered meals; care services in the home; respite care and other support to families and caregivers; information about and referral to supports; and more.

This table is intended to assist Tribes, TDHE, and Tribal organizations with finding information on available Federal resources. All determinations regarding program eligibility will be made by the appropriate Federal agency responsible for administering each program listed in this table. Updated on September 4, 2020.

Agency	Program	Support Function	Amount Available	Assistance Type	Eligible Recipient	Purpose and Eligible Activities
	for OAA Nutrition Programs
HHS – Centers for Disease Control & Prevention	CDC-wide activities and program support	Health Services	$4.3 billion ($125 million set aside for tribes)	grant	Tribes	To carry out surveillance, epidemiology, laboratory capacity, infection control, mitigation, communications, and other preparedness and response activities
HHS – Centers for Disease Control & Prevention	Infectious Diseases Rapid Response Reserve Fund	Health Services	$1.5 billion	grant, cooperative agreement	States, localities, territories, Tribes, Tribal organizations, urban Indian health organization or health service providers to tribes	To carry out surveillance, epidemiology, laboratory capacity, infection control, mitigation, communications, and other preparedness and response activities

This table is intended to assist Tribes, TDHE, and Tribal organizations with finding information on available Federal resources. All determinations regarding program eligibility will be made by the appropriate Federal agency responsible for administering each program listed in this table. Updated on September 4, 2020.

Agency	Program	Support Function	Amount Available	Assistance Type	Eligible Recipient	Purpose and Eligible Activities
HHS – Centers for Disease Control & Prevention	Public Health Emergency Preparedness Grants	Health Services	$2.2 billion ($950 million set aside for states, localities, territories, tribes, tribal organizations, urban Indian health organizations, or health service providers to tribes with at least $40 million set aside for tribes)	grant	Tribes	To carry out surveillance, epidemiology, laboratory capacity, infection control, mitigation, communications, and other preparedness and response activities
HHS – SAMHSA	Emergency Response Grants	Health Services	$110 million	grant	Tribes	Provides crisis intervention services, mental and substance use disorder treatment, and other related recovery supports to address the needs of individuals with serious mental illness, individuals with substance use disorders, and/or individuals with co-occurring serious mental illness and substance use disorders.
Indian Health Service	Facilities Account	Health Services	$125 million	grant	Tribes	Of the 125 million -- $74 million will support medical equipment needs; $41 million will support maintenance and improvement needs; and $10 million will support sanitation and potable water needs

This table is intended to assist Tribes, TDHE, and Tribal organizations with finding information on available Federal resources. All determinations regarding program eligibility will be made by the appropriate Federal agency responsible for administering each program listed in this table. Updated on September 4, 2020.

Agency	Program	Support Function	Amount Available	Assistance Type	Eligible Recipient	Purpose and Eligible Activities
Indian Health Service	Indian Health Services	Health Services	$1.032 billion		Tribes	IHS allocations for tribal health programs, Urban Indian Organizations, Telehealth, electronic health record stabilization, test kits, medical equipment and more.
Indian Health Services	Medical Services	Health Services	$64 million		Tribes	For health service consisting of SARS-CoV-2 or COVID-19 related items and services as described in section 6007 of division F of the Families First Coronavirus Response Act or the administration of such products
Minority Business Development Agency	Minority Business Development Agency Technical Assistance	Economic Development	$10 million	Technical assistance	TBD	Technical assistance on small business concerns
Small Business Administration	Debt Relief	Economic Development			small business with certain SBA loans	The SBA will pay 6 months of principal, interest, and any associated fees that borrowers owe for all current 7(a), 504, and Microloans in regular servicing status as well as new 7(a), 504, and Microloans disbursed prior to September 27, 2020.
Small Business Administration	Emergency Economic Injury Disaster Loans Grants	Economic Development	$10 billion	loan	small businesses	Support for small business (less than 500 employees) to overcome temporary loss of revenue as a result of COVID-19. Loan advance (of up to $10,000) does not need to be repaid
Small Business Administration	Express Bridge Loan	Economic Development		loan	small businesses with existing SBA relationship	Allows small businesses who currently have a business relationship with an SBA Express Lender to access up to $25,000 quickly. These loans can provide vital economic support to small businesses to help overcome the temporary loss of revenue they are experiencing and can be a term loans or used to bridge the

This table is intended to assist Tribes, TDHE, and Tribal organizations with finding information on available Federal resources. All determinations regarding program eligibility will be made by the appropriate Federal agency responsible for administering each program listed in this table. Updated on September 4, 2020.

Agency	Program	Support Function	Amount Available	Assistance Type	Eligible Recipient	Purpose and Eligible Activities
						gap while applying for a direct SBA Economic Injury Disaster loan. .
Small Business Administration	Paycheck Protection Program (Business Loans Program Account)	Economic Development	$349 billion	loan	Tribes, Tribal organizations, businesses with less than 500 employees	100% loan guarantees up to $10mil to cover costs like employee salaries, paid sick leave/medical leave, mortgages/rents, and employee health insurance premiums. General business loans authorized under section 7(a) of Small Business Act
USDA	Child Nutrition Programs	Food	$8.8 billion and supplemental CARES		States, tribes may sponsor sites	Child nutrition programs help to ensure that children have access to nutrition meals and snacks in schools, summer programs, childcare centers and homes, and afterschool programs. FNS also issued guidance on meal delivery. $8.8 billion. Pandemic EBT –Supplemental EBT allotments in FY2020 for the value of school meals for each eligible child in the household.

This table is intended to assist Tribes, TDHE, and Tribal organizations with finding information on available Federal resources. All determinations regarding program eligibility will be made by the appropriate Federal agency responsible for administering each program listed in this table. Updated on September 4, 2020.

Agency	Program	Support Function	Amount Available	Assistance Type	Eligible Recipient	Purpose and Eligible Activities
USDA	Commodity Assistance Program	Food	Families First Coronavirus Response Act: $400 million to Commodity Assistance Program, $100 million of which may be used for distribution. CARES Act: $450 million to CAP, $150 million for distribution.		Indian Tribal Organizations (currently 5) and states	Through CSFP, USDA distributes both food and administrative funds to participating states and Indian Tribal Organizations (ITOs). The Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP) works to improve the health of low-income elderly persons at least 60 years of age by supplementing their diets with nutritious USDA Foods
USDA	Disaster Household and Distribution	Food		boxed food	Indian Tribal Organizations (currently 28)	Distributions for targeted areas to meet specific needs when traditional channels of food are unavailable and not being replenished on a regular basis. DHD provides boxed foods to households using existing inventories of USDA-purchased foods

This table is intended to assist Tribes, TDHE, and Tribal organizations with finding information on available Federal resources. All determinations regarding program eligibility will be made by the appropriate Federal agency responsible for administering each program listed in this table. Updated on September 4, 2020.

Agency	Program	Support Function	Amount Available	Assistance Type	Eligible Recipient	Purpose and Eligible Activities
USDA	Emergency Food Assistance Program	Food			States – tribes may receive from states or local agencies	The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP) is a federal program that helps supplement the diets of low-income Americans, including elderly people, by providing them with emergency food assistance at no cost. States provide the food to local agencies that they have selected, usually food banks, which in turn distribute the food to local organizations, such as soup kitchens and food pantries that directly serve the public.
USDA	Pandemic EBT	Food			States, tribes may sponsor sites	As a result of the Families First Coronavirus Response Act of 2020, children who would receive free or reduced-price meals if not for school closures are eligible to receive assistance under this provision. USDA is providing guidance to state agencies on plan requirements in order to receive approval.
USDA	Rural Utilities Services: ReConnect Program	Economic Development	$100 million	loans and grants	non-profits, for profits, states, local governments, Indian tribes	Fund the construction or improvement of buildings, land, and other facilities that are required to provide broadband service; reasonable pre-application expenses; acquisition and improvement of an existing system that is currently providing insufficient broadband services; terrestrial-based facilities that support the provision of satellite broadband service.

This table is intended to assist Tribes, TDHE, and Tribal organizations with finding information on available Federal resources. All determinations regarding program eligibility will be made by the appropriate Federal agency responsible for administering each program listed in this table. Updated on September 4, 2020.

Agency	Program	Support Function	Amount Available	Assistance Type	Eligible Recipient	Purpose and Eligible Activities
USDA	Summer Food Service Program	Food			States – tribes may sponsor sites	The U.S. Department of Agriculture’s (USDA) Summer Food Service Program (SFSP), also known as the Summer Meals Program, provides kids and teens in low-income areas free meals when school is out. The SFSP serves children and teens age 18 and younger. Serve meals in non-congregate setting and at school sites during COVID-related school closures
USDA	Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program Emergency Allotments (SNAP)	Food	$15,810,000,000; $15,510,000 allowed by the Secretary; $100 million for food distribution on Indian reservations	grant	States, Tribes	SNAP provides nutrition benefits to supplement the food budget of needy families so they can purchase healthy food and move towards self-sufficiency.
USDA	Supplemental Nutrition for Women, Infants and Children (WIC)	Food	$500 million plus		Indian Tribal Organizations (currently 34) and states	The Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) provides federal grants to states for supplemental foods, health care referrals, and nutrition education for low-income pregnant, breastfeeding, and non-breastfeeding postpartum women, and to infants and children up to age five who are found to be at nutritional risk. The Families First Coronavirus Response Act provided the WIC Program with $500 million to remain available through Sept. 30, 2021.

This table is intended to assist Tribes, TDHE, and Tribal organizations with finding information on available Federal resources. All determinations regarding program eligibility will be made by the appropriate Federal agency responsible for administering each program listed in this table. Updated on September 4, 2020.

Agency	Program	Support Function	Amount Available	Assistance Type	Eligible Recipient	Purpose and Eligible Activities
USDA - Food & Nutrition Services	Food Distribution Program (FDPIR)	Food	$100 million ($50 million for facility upgrades, $50 million for additional food purchases)	grant	Income-eligible American Indian and non-Indian households on a reservation or near a reservation	For nutrition assistance in response to a COVID-19 public health emergency

This table is intended to assist Tribes, TDHE, and Tribal organizations with finding information on available Federal resources. All determinations regarding program eligibility will be made by the appropriate Federal agency responsible for administering each program listed in this table. Updated on September 4, 2020.