Selected “Red Flag” Indicators of Time Overcharging

- ✓ Unauthorized alterations to time—cards and other source records
- ✓ Billed hours and dollars consistently at or near budgeted amounts
- ✓ Timecards filled out by supervisors, not by employees
- ✓ Photocopies of timecards where originals are expected
- ✓ Inconsistencies between consultant’s labor distribution records and employee timecards
- ✓ Frequent adjusting of journal entries with descriptions such as changed wrong “work order” or “contract number”
- ✓ Labor charges inconsistent with contract progress
- ✓ Personnel files that cannot be found or “found” after a delay
- ✓ Lack of a clear audit trail to verify propriety of labor charges
