INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this handbook is to provide you with general information regarding the Federal Prison Camp, Lewisburg, Pennsylvania. It is not a specific guide to the detailed policies of the Bureau of Prisons (which are subject to change) or all procedures in effect at each Bureau location.

The responsibility of the staff at the FPC, Lewisburg, is to maintain security, provide a safe and humane environment, and afford opportunities for self-improvement.

You can make your time as meaningful as possible by showing responsible behavior, respect for the rights of others, and compliance with the rules and regulations of this institution.

ADMINISTRATION/UNIT STAFF

Warden: The Warden is the final authority on all matters within the Camp. His decisions are based upon policies established by the Bureau of Prisons. While he is responsible for the total operation of the institution, he has delegated certain duties and responsibilities to other staff members.

Camp Administrator: The Camp Administrator is responsible for implementing all decisions made by the Warden that pertain to programs and the daily operation of this facility.

Unit Manager: Implements decisions made by the Camp Administrator. Ordinarily chairs Team meetings. Supervises Case Managers and Counselors.

If you have a problem you believe has not been resolved, after exhausting all other avenues, an Inmate Request to Staff Member form should be submitted to him.

Case Managers: The Case Managers are responsible for all case work services and prepare classification material, progress reports, release plans, correspondence, and other materials related to your confinement. The Case Manager serves as a liaison between the inmate, the administration, and the community. The Case Manager is a member of the Unit Disciplinary Committee.

Counselors: The counselors provide counseling and guidance regarding areas pertaining to institutional adjustment and personal difficulties. He/She participates in the development of meaningful programs. The counselor will visit inmate work assignments regularly. He/She should be consulted regarding problems you encounter during your incarceration. He/She ordinarily performs functions concerning administrative complaints, visitor's list, financial responsibility issues, mail, telephone list and property.

Secretary: The secretary is responsible for all clerical functions and a significant portion of the administrative duties necessary for the Camp operation.

ADMISSION & ORIENTATION (A&O)

Orientation: When you arrive at Lewisburg, either by direct Court commitment or transfer from another institution, you will be placed in an Admission and Orientation Program. This orientation period will consist of lectures by department heads and other staff members regarding various programs, services, policies, procedures, and regulations at this facility. You are required to attend the lectures and callouts which are part of the Admission and Orientation

Program. Your attendance is mandatory. If you miss any of the lecture, you may be required to go through A&O again.

Institution Boundaries: You are considered out of bounds in certain areas of the institution. The road running in front of the institution, as well as other areas identified with OUT OF BOUNDS signs are off limits to inmates. The water run-off pool is OUT OF BOUNDS. You are not permitted to walk on any non-paved area. After dusk, all inmates are restricted to the lighted areas of the compound, their units, and the administration building. The Field House closes nightly at 9:30 p.m. Inmates are not permitted to walk thru or utilize the Camp staff parking lot, nor the steps to the road to report to their work detail, with the exception of the inmates assigned to the FCC work detail.

NOTE: You are not allowed to leave the boundaries of the Federal Prison Camp without specific authorization from staff. Absent such authorization, you are committing the crime of escape and may be prosecuted for this action. See U.S.C. 751 and 752.

You may not assist another inmate in leaving the Federal Prison Camp for any reason. To do so may result in disciplinary or criminal action being taken against you. If you are aware of any escape or escape attempt you must immediately notify staff.

CLASSIFICATION TEAM

The classification team ordinarily includes the unit manager, case manager, counselor, and education advisor. The unit officer will provide the team with a summary of your adjustment within the housing unit including sanitation, interactions with staff and inmates, and any other information which may be relevant. Generally, the resolution of issues or matters of interest while at this institution are most appropriately initiated with the unit team. Matters such as custody, transfers, security level, furlough consideration, residential re-entry center placement, etc., are discussed during your regularly scheduled team meetings which occur at 90 or 180 day intervals.

COUNT TIMES

The purpose of a count is to ensure all inmates are accounted for at the institution. The officers conducting the count must be able to see living, breathing flesh. When this is not accomplished, especially during the morning watch count times, the officer(s) will wake you up to ensure accountability of each inmate. Count times will be announced over the public address system. Ordinarily, there will be five official counts as listed below:

WEEKDAYS WEEKENDS/FEDERAL HOLIDAYS

10. You have the right to receive prescribed medications and treatments in a timely manner, consistent with the recommendations of the prescribing health care provider.
11. You have the right to be provided healthy and nutritious food. You have the right to instructions regarding a healthy diet.
12. You have the right to request a routine physical examination as defined in Bureau of Prisons policy. (If you are under the age of 50, once every 2 years, if over the age of 50, once a year and within one year of your release).
13. You have the right to dental care as defined in the Bureau of Prisons policy to include preventative services, emergency care, and routine care.
14. You have the right to a safe, clean, and healthy environment that includes smoke free living areas.
15. You have the right to refuse medical treatment in accordance with the Bureau of Prisons policy. Refusal of certain diagnostic tests for infectious diseases can result in administrative actions against you. You have the right to be counseled regarding the possible consequences of refusing medical treatment.
16. In the case of language or cultural differences, all care will be taken to see that communication between the patient and those responsible for his care is adequate.

Your Health Care Responsibilities

1. You have the responsibility to comply with the health care policies of this institution and follow recommended treatment plans established for you by the health care staff.
2. You have the responsibility to treat these providers as professional and follow their instructions to maintain and improve your overall health.
3. You have the responsibility to address your concerns in the accepted format, such as the Inmate Request to Staff Member form, at main line, or the accepted Inmate Grievance Procedures.
4. You have the responsibility to provide the Bureau of Prisons with accurate information to complete this agreement.
5. You have the responsibility to keep this information confidential.
6. You have the responsibility to be familiar with the current policy and abide by such to obtain these records.
7. You have the responsibility to comply with security procedures should security be required during your examination.
8. You have the responsibility to maintain your health and not to endanger yourself, or others, by participating in activities that could result in the spreading or catching of infectious diseases.
9. You have the responsibility to communicate with your health care provider honestly regarding your pain and your concerns about your pain. You also have the responsibility to adhere to the prescribed treatment plan and medical restrictions. It is your responsibility to keep your provider informed of both positive and negative changes in your condition to assure timely follow-up.
10. You have the responsibility to be honest with your health care provider(s), to comply with prescription treatments and follow prescription orders. You also have the responsibility not to provide any other person with your medication or other prescription item.
11. You have the responsibility to eat healthy and not abuse or waste food or drink.
12. You have the responsibility to notify medical staff that you wish to have an examination.
13. You have the responsibility to maintain your oral hygiene and health.
14. You have the responsibility to maintain the cleanliness of personal and common areas and safety in consideration of others. You have the responsibility to follow smoking regulations.
15. You have the responsibility to notify Health Services regarding any ill-effects that occur as a result of your refusal. You also accept the responsibility to sign the treatment refusal form.
