

READ

ACROSS THE LIBRARY

The Library of Congress collects widely, including the largest collections in the world of comics, maps, foreign language materials, and more. Can you read a book that matches material from each of these areas of the Library? As you finish each book, color in or put a sticker into the matching category in the card below. Four in a row = "bingo"!

R	E	A	D
 International Collections: Africa & Middle East	 Science, Technology & Business	 Copyright	 American Folklife Center
 Law Library	 Main Reading Room	 International Collections: Hispanic Division	 Motion Picture, Broadcasting & Recorded Sound
 Performing Arts	 International Collections: Europe	 Prints and Photographs	 International Collections: Asia
 Manuscript Division	 Geography and Maps	 Serial & Government Publications	 Main Reading Room

CREATE A BOOK JOURNAL

Record the title and author's name for the book you read in each category and the date you finished it:

American Folklife Center: _____ Date: _____

Copyright: _____ Date: _____

Geography & Maps: _____ Date: _____

International Collections: Africa & Middle East: _____ Date: _____

International Collections, Asia: _____ Date: _____

International Collections, Europe: _____ Date: _____

International Collections, Hispanic Division: _____ Date: _____

Law: _____ Date: _____

Main Reading Room: _____ Date: _____

Manuscript Division: _____ Date: _____

Motion Picture, Broadcasting & Recorded Sound: _____ Date: _____

Performing Arts: _____ Date: _____

Prints & Photographs: _____ Date: _____

Serials & Government Publications: _____ Date: _____

Science, Technology & Business: _____ Date: _____

Print and cut out these images to use as chips for your “Read Across the Library” board.

