

---

Amy J. Weisman

Counsel Space & Naval Warfare Systems Command

Amy J. Weisman is the Counsel, Space and Naval Warfare Systems Command (SPAWAR). She serves as the principal legal advisor to SPAWAR, Program Executive Office (PEO) Command, Control, Communications Computers and Intelligence, PEO Enterprise Information Systems, PEO Space Systems and leads more than 55 headquarters and field attorneys and staff. SPAWAR designs, develops and deploys advanced communications and information capabilities to the fleet and joint warfighter. This includes satellite systems, undersea surveillance equipment, remote sensors, tactical and business IT and myriad other C4ISR and cyber capabilities. SPAWAR is headquartered in San Diego, CA, with attorneys located in San Diego, Charleston, SC and the Washington, DC area.

Prior to her selection as a member of the SES, Ms. Weisman served as Deputy Counsel, SPAWAR from May 2004 to January 2014, and as Acting Counsel, SPAWAR from January 2014 to April 2014. From August 2002 to May 2004, Ms. Weisman served as Counsel to the Director for the Navy/Marine Corps Intranet in Arlington, VA. From 2001 to 2002, Ms. Weisman was Associate Counsel and Head of Acquisition Law in the SPAWAR Office of Counsel. Previously, Ms. Weisman served as the legal advisor to the Navy Satellite Communications Program Office. She joined the Navy Office of the General Counsel in 1996.

Ms. Weisman received a B.A in Political Science and Russian Studies, magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa, from Lafayette College. She earned her M.A. in Russian and East European Studies, with an emphasis on Soviet National Security Policy, from Stanford University. She received her J.D., cum laude, at American University where she published articles in the American University Journal of International Law and Policy and the American Bar Association's Central and East European Law Initiative Legal Assessments Journal. She is a recipient of the Navy Meritorious Civilian Service Award and several awards for Federal Acquisition Excellence.