

Critically Endangered Species Quiz

1. A species is considered critically endangered if:
  - a. Its population has not changed at all in three generations
  - b. It can only be found in one location
  - c. Its population has decreased by at least 80% within three generations
  - d. It is a really big species
2. What organization is responsible for listing species as critically endangered?
  - a. The United States government
  - b. The International Union for Conservation of Nature
  - c. The United Nations Environmental Program
  - d. The National Zoo Association
3. True or False: African Penguins are the only penguin species found in Africa.
4. Where is the Hirola Antelope found in the wild?
  - a. Colombia
  - b. The Democratic Republic of Congo
  - c. Around the border between Kenya and Somalia
  - d. In the Andes Mountains
5. True or False: Raptors are considered to be gentle birds that only eat plants and grasses.
6. What percentage of its life will the Cantor's Giant Soft-shell Turtle spend buried motionless in the sand?
  - a. 12%
  - b. 59%
  - c. 95%
  - d. 82%
7. True or False: The Antiguan Racer is a non-venomous snake
8. In what region can the Duiker, Ploughshare Tortoise, and Red Colobus Monkey be found?
  - a. North America
  - b. Europe
  - c. Africa
  - d. Southeast Asia

9. True or False: The Ethiopian Wolf is one of three wolf species that can be found in Africa
10. What separates Grevy's Zebra from other zebra species?
- It is smaller than other species
  - It has a plain white underbelly
  - It has no stripes
  - All of the above
11. In what Southeast Asian country can you find the Siamese Crocodile?
- Vietnam
  - Cambodia
  - South Korea
  - Indonesia
12. Which species is considered to believe to turn into gold once it dies?
- Cauca Poison Frog
  - Golden-lion Tamarin
  - Pygmy Three-toed Sloth
  - Panamanian Golden Frog
13. True or False: The Blue-eyed Black Lemur is only one of two non-human species that have blue eyes.
14. What makes the Markhor's horns unique?
- It has no horns.
  - Its horns are long and spiraled.
  - The horns are connected
  - The horns are covered with long fur
15. True or False: Critically endangered species come in all shapes and sizes and can be found across the globe.

ANSWER KEY

1. C
2. B
3. T
4. C
5. F
6. C
7. T
8. C
9. F
10. B
11. B
12. C
13. T
14. B
15. T