PART 2e

NON-INDEXED TERMS, STANDARD ABBREVIATIONS, AND STATE GEOGRAPHIC CODES
AS USED IN MORTALITY DATA CLASSIFICATION, 1995
(Including Official WHO Amendments to ICD-9, Volume 2)

INTRODUCTION

This manual was added to the vital statistics instruction manual series in 1983. It contains five special lists to coders of causes of death often need to refer:

- a. Terms not indexed in Volume 2 of ICD-9
- b. Classification of secondary neoplasms by site
- c. Standard abbreviations and the disease terms for which they represent
- d. Geographic codes for state of occurrence of death
- e. Official WHO amendments and corrections to ICD-9, Volume 2

All lists except those for secondary neoplasms are applicable to both underlying and multiple cause coding in accordance with the instructions contained in Parts 2a and 2b, respectively, of the Vital Statistics Instruction Manual series. Secondary neoplasms are used exclusively in multiple cause of death classification. Items c and d above were a part of the 1979-1982 annual editions of Part 2b of the Vital Statistics Instruction Manual series but were moved to Part 2e effective with the 1983 edition. The remaining lists were not previously published as a part of the vital statistics instruction manual series for ICD-9.

The major reason for the development of Part 2e was to provide a published source of code assignments for terms not indexed in Volume 2 of ICD-9. This section in the 2e manual for 1988 is thus essentially a supplement to ICD-9 representing an alphabetized compendium of non-indexed terms (and their corresponding code assignments) encountered in the coding of 1979 - 1986 data at NCHS. The list is believed to be essentially complete but is not all inclusive in that terms which are rarely encountered and do not affect the underlying cause of death assignment are omitted. Terms not indexed in either Volume 2 of ICD-9 or in this manual should not be coded. Rather, they should be referred to Chief, Data Preparation Branch, Division of Data Processing, P. O. Box 12214, Research Triangle Park, North Carolina 27709, at NCHS for review. After reviewing all such terms received during the year, a decision will be made on those terms to be included in the next annual edition of this manual. New terms added in the 1995 edition are denoted by an asterisk.

The United States instituted new categories for the classification and coding of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) and human immunodeficiency (HIV) virus infection. The categories were developed through a collaborative effort of the Center for Infectious Diseases, the National Center for Health Statistics, Centers for Disease Control, and the World Health Organization Collaborating Center for Classification of Diseases for North America. In the United States these new categories supplement the existing cause-of-death classification system, the Ninth Revision of the International Classification of Diseases (ICD-9) of the World Health Organization (WHO), and became effective with deaths occurring in calendar year 1987. Since a revision of the International Classification of Diseases (ICD-10) will not be available until 1998, the new codes were justified by the urgent need of public health officials, clinical researchers and medical care financiers to specifically identify and monitor this infection. Entries for this new classification were added to the 1987 edition of this manual, and the following modifications were made in the 1988 edition:

1. The current terminology of HIV infection replaced HTLV-III infection.

2. Four conditions were added to the "Includes only" notes:

 Isosporiasis (007.2) under 042.0

 Diarrhea (noninfectious) (558)

 infectious (009) under 043.3

 Pneumonitis, lymphoid, interstitial (516.8) under 043.3

3. The titles for .9 of 042, 043, 044 were modified.
