- Any and all documents or policies related to information made available to U.S. Department of Homeland Security. Specifically related to access by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) of information about applicants and non-applicant household members of applicants who have been part of applications for benefits through Michigan Department of Human Services (Michigan DHS).
- This request is meant to encompass communications and access by ICE to Michigan DHS data outside of the Systematic Alien Verification System (SAVE) within U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). This office understands that there is extensive communication between Michigan DHS and USCIS through the SAVE system in order to determine eligibility for benefits and we are not interested in these communications. Again, this request is specifically for ICE access to information about applicants and . non-applicants in the Michigan DHS system, not communications between USCIS and Michigan DHS regarding benefits eligibility.
- Please furnish exactly what information ICE has the ability to access or request from Michigan DHS and how ICE is able to access this information, including information regarding the immigration status of non-applicant household members
