

BEBEST

WHITE HOUSE FUN FACTS

1. The construction of the White House was completed in _____. The first president to live here was our second president, _____.
2. The White House Library contains 2,700 books depicting American history and culture. During President John Adams' administration, this room was a _____ room.
3. The White House has a collection of approximately 1600 pieces of vermeil. Vermeil is the French word for silver that has been covered in _____.
4. There are _____ oval-shaped rooms in the White House. The Oval Office is located in the _____ and serves as the President's formal office.
5. The East Room is the _____ room in the White House; it spans the entire width of the White House!
6. President _____ delivered the longest inaugural address to date; it was over two hours long! His portrait is on display in the Green Room.
7. The historic furniture in the Blue Room was purchased by President James Monroe in _____ and was made in _____.
8. First Lady _____ regularly held press conferences in the Red Room.
9. President Abraham Lincoln's portrait hangs in the _____. President Lincoln was our _____ president and issued the Emancipation Proclamation during his time in office.

BEBEST

WHITE HOUSE FUN FACTS

1. The construction of the White House was completed in 1800. The first president to live here was our second president, JOHN ADAMS.
2. The White House Library contains 2,700 books depicting American history and culture. During President John Adams' administration, this room was a LAUNDRY room.
3. The White House has a collection of approximately 1600 pieces of vermeil. Vermeil is the French word for silver that has been covered in GOLD.
4. There are THREE oval-shaped rooms in the White House. The Oval Office is located in the WEST WING and serves as the President's formal office.
5. The East Room is the LARGEST room in the White House; it spans the entire width of the White House!
6. President WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON delivered the longest inaugural address to date; it was over two hours long! His portrait is on display in the Green Room.
7. The historic furniture in the Blue Room was purchased by President James Monroe in 1817 and was made in FRANCE.
8. First Lady ELEANOR ROOSEVELT regularly held press conferences in the Red Room.
9. President Abraham Lincoln's portrait hangs in the STATE DINING ROOM. President Lincoln was our 16TH president and issued the Emancipation Proclamation during his time in office.